I.  CALL TO ORDER

  The Chairman, Mrs. Whitt W. Clement, called the meeting to order at 2:00 pm and introduced and welcomed new trustees Cynthia Fralin of Roanoke and Michael Schewel of McGuireWoods.

II.  MINUTES

  Motion: proposed by Mrs. Clement and seconded by Ms. Walls that the minutes of the last meeting of the Artistic Oversight Committee held on the 19th of May 2008 be approved as distributed on the 29th of July 2008. Motion carried.

III.  UPDATES

  Deputy Director for Sales and Marketing
  Director Alex Nyerges introduced the committee to Alexis Vaughn, our new Deputy Director for Sales and Marketing. He told the group that Ms. Vaughn was the former Chief Operating Officer of the North Carolina Museum of Art and has worked for Citicorp and the Peace Corps and said we are very glad she is here.

  Exhibition Guidelines
  Robin Nicholson gave a brief overview of the recently developed Exhibitions Guidelines which were mailed out to the committee to review before this meeting. These guidelines cover issues such as the display of culturally sensitive or offensive materials as well as the involvement of artists, lenders, donors and sponsors in exhibitions. They were drafted in response to a specific query in the AAM accreditation process, and are intended only to provide broad guidelines, rather than being proscriptive. The following motion was then proposed.

  Motion: proposed by Mrs. Clement and seconded by Ms. Goode that the Artistic Committee approves the Exhibition Guidelines as presented by Mr. Nicholson and recommends that the Full Board approve the Guidelines at its meeting tomorrow. Motion carried.

  Richmond Airport Initiative
  Robin Nicholson reported on the newest VMFA collaboration with Richmond International Airport. VMFA and the Richmond International Airport will be working together to create special displays of art at strategic locations in the airport. The costs of this endeavor will be borne by the airport. VMFA staff are working to find suitable content and finding ways to ensure suitable security and environmental controls and conditions. This will be extremely beneficial for VMFA exposure right in the center of Richmond’s gateway. The first of these displays should be open by the end of 2008.

Reinstalling the Permanent Collection

Richard Woodward shared with the committee the progress on the expansion and installation of art in the new wing and existing galleries, highlighting the growth of galleries for American art, Pre-Columbian art and other galleries. He estimates that over the course of reinstallation, approximately five-thousand works will be newly installed throughout the museum.

John Ravenal reported on the plan for the new sculpture garden and highlighted some artists currently being considered for possible commissions, acquisitions and bequests. He showed an aerial view of the four acre garden which he said offers us a broad range of ways to program and install art. He noted that there are fourteen different areas in the Sculpture Garden proper and surrounding the Museum with each area suggesting different treatments. Broadly speaking these include using the permanent collection, arranging for long term loans, short term loans for outdoor exhibitions, a series of rotating temporary commissions, permanent commissions and new acquisitions. Mr. Ravenal explained that phase one of the Sculpture Garden will be completed at the time of the grand opening and will include the main lawn, terraced slope, belvedere, pools and meeting and waiting areas.

IV. UNVEILING A NEW COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

President Reynolds announced that she has created some new committees so that we can be the best we can be when the new wing opens. She has renamed the Artistic Oversight Committee the Artistic Committee and has made the Art Acquisitions Committee a full stand alone committee instead of a sub-committee. She told the group of the new Organizational Excellence Task Force which will bring together people experienced in management and public administration to look at the ways we operate this institution and report back to the Strategic Planning Committee. Barbara-lyn Morris from the Board of Trustees and Ranjit Sen from the VMFA Foundation Board have been named co-chairmen of the Advancement Committee which is just getting started.

Alex Nyerges explained that the Statewide Task Force has done such a great job it has been made into a full permanent Education and Statewide Partnerships Committee to look at our education programs for 2010 and beyond. He thanked Chairman Suzanne Mastracco and staff liaison, Sandy Rusak for their hard work. Mr. Nyerges said we have programs all across Virginia as you will see at the November Full Board meeting when the Statewide Task Force presents their report.

V. ART MOMENT

Li Jian, Curator of East Asian Art, gave a PowerPoint presentation on the Hidden Treasures of Chinese Art in our collection. She showed photographs that she took of works in our collection such as textiles and silk tapestries. The talk was enjoyed by everyone present.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS/ADJOURNMENT

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Mrs. Whitt W. Clement, called the meeting to order at 1:25 pm. She summarized the meeting agenda noting that Robin Nicholson would provide a brief review of the Exhibition Portfolio, having offered a full presentation at the November meeting and that the Committee’s approval would be sought at the end of the presentation to proceed with the portfolio plan. Suzanne Hall would then share the marketing plan for the Landscapes from the Age of Impressionism exhibition.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Clement and seconded by Mr. Adams that the minutes of the last meeting of the Artistic Oversight Committee held on the 14th of November 2007 be approved as distributed on the 1st of February 2008. Motion carried.

III. UPDATES

Exhibition Portfolio

Robin Nicholson’s presentation focused on the first twelve months of the portfolio. He noted that while seeking approval to proceed with the portfolio, the staff will continuously update the committee on changes and updates on a regular basis. Official approval will not be sought again unless there are substantial changes. He announced that since the November meeting, two exhibitions had been added to the portfolio. The first is an exhibition of Civil War drawings from Boston College to commemorate the Civil War sesquicentennial in 2011. The second is a small exhibition of art pottery being organized by Barry Shifman. Mr. Nicholson said there have been no other significant changes other than a few minor date alterations.

Other exhibitions featured in the first twelve months include:
Darkroom: Photography and New Media from 1950 to Present
Cy Twombly
Highlights from the African Collection
A Passion for Flowers
Color & Light: The Art of Louis Comfort Tiffany (We will be the only US venue.)
Picasso, Matisse and the Art of Paris (Will also tour statewide)
Sally Mann
Mourners of the Duke of Burgundy
Maharaja from the Victoria and Albert Museum, London
Robin Nicholson emphasized the importance of the Darkroom exhibition, noting that in 2009 MOAM will be holding a major exhibition on South African print making. Darkroom will be accompanied by a catalogue and many of the works by the artists in this exhibition are being acquired by major institutions across the country. This will be in the larger of the two new exhibition galleries when we open. An exhibition featuring Virginia artists will be in the smaller of the two spaces which is still a vast amount of space in terms of what we used to have in our older building.

John Adams commended Robin Nicholson for his work and asked a question regarding the financial considerations for the portfolio. Mr. Nicholson responded that the Portfolio budget will be largely supported by the business plan and current endowments. Additional support will be sought but it appears that the program will be able to support itself. Mr. Adams also asked how trustees would receive reports on the budget for the exhibition and Robin Nicholson and Alex Nyerges responded that reports would be made to the Fiscal Oversight Committee.

Meg Clement noted that the exhibition on Virginia artists would be a good opportunity to engage the General Assembly and reinforce our Statewide initiative. Robin Nicholson agreed and stated that this will be a part of an ongoing program to support Virginia artists. Mrs. Clement then asked the Committee for the following motion.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Adams, seconded by Ms. Walls that the committee approve the Exhibition Portfolio to allow staff to continue development, permit minor changes, sign exhibition contracts, develop programming and seek sponsorship where needed. Motion carried.

Advertising Strategy
Suzanne Hall then shared with the committee the ad campaign for Landscapes from the Age of Impressionism. She reminded the committee that while staff is working on a series of spotlight loans over the next couple of years, this exhibition will, in fact be the last exhibition before the new wing opens. The goal of this marketing program is to get better results with same amount of dollars. Ms. Hall said working with Siddall, we have created the tagline, “Meet me at the Monet.” A few of the innovative approaches include ads and window displays at Stony Point and Short Pump malls, cocktail napkins at local restaurants around the city, as well as TV spots on NBC and PBS. She noted particularly that Short Pump receives about twelve million visitors a year. We will also offer cell phone guides and podcasts which share some of the words of the artists in the exhibition. There will also be a few internet ads as well.

IV. OTHER BUSINESS/ADJOURNMENT
No further business was brought before the Committee, and the meeting adjourned at 1:54 pm.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Mrs. Whitt W. Clement, called the meeting to order at 1:18 pm. Director Alex Nyerges introduced the committee to the two new curators present John Henry Rice, Associate Curator of South Asian Art and Dr. Susan Rawles, Assistant Curator of American Decorative Art. He noted that Sheila Payaquí, Assistant Objects Conservator was now on board. The Committee was pleased to welcome the new staff members.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Clement and seconded by Ms. Goode that the minutes of the last meeting of the Artistic Oversight Committee held on the 20th of February 2008 be approved as distributed on the 19th of March 2008. Motion carried.

III. UPDATES

Exhibition Portfolio
Robin Nicholson gave a brief report on some changes to the Exhibition Portfolio. Due to the American Federation of Arts having difficulty in acquiring key loans for the exhibition, Passion for Flowers, VMFA has taken the lead and become collaborators and co-organizers for the exhibition. This will save money in exhibition loan fees and allow us a great deal more flexibility in timing and scheduling. This exhibition will now be shown at VMFA a year later in Spring 2011 to allow greater time to negotiate the critical loans. This will allow us to revert to our preferred scheduling of the first major banner exhibition four to six months after the opening of the new wing. The inaugural banner exhibition will therefore now be the Louis Comfort Tiffany exhibition, Tiffany: Master of Glass opening May 2010.

Statewide Realignments
Sandy Rusak summarized the current progress of the Statewide Task Force and the status of the Statewide program. She briefly outlined the strategies that have been implemented in advance of the September Task Force report, notably the transfer of the management of statewide exhibitions to the exhibitions division. She also listed the many recent visits made to partners and schools throughout the state. At these meetings staff and trustees listened to each partner share their ideas on how VMFA can improve our programs. Pam Reynolds noted the large amount of work involved in these visits and thanked the staff.
Spotlight Loan Exhibitions 2008-09

Robin Nicholson reported on the Spotlight Loan program designed to maintain momentum while preparing for the expansion. He said there will be several key loans from prominent institutions featured over the next year and a half to include a major painting by Jasper Johns from the Art Institute of Chicago and a prominent work by Degas borrowed from the Brooklyn Museum.

He said the first Spotlight Loan is scheduled for June 27 and includes the borrowed work by Jasper Johns exhibited with our Jackson Pollock and our Sol LeWitt. Another loan scheduled for June 27 is the exhibition of a work by Paolo de Matteis, “The Annunciation.” It will be paired with our de Matteis, “The Adoration.” These two pieces that have been apart for hundreds of years were commissioned to hang together in a private palace. The third week of July “Madame Fiocre” by Degas will be installed in the Mellon galleries with other waxes by Degas. This is considered one of Degas’ greatest masterpieces and will be on display through October. During the November elections, Georg Caleb Bingham’s, “The County Election” will be on view. Mr. Nicholson explained that Sylvia Yount is working on this loan.

Exhibition Guidelines

Robin Nicholson gave a brief overview of the new Exhibitions Guidelines for the committee to review before approving in the September meeting. These guidelines cover issues such as the display of culturally sensitive or offensive materials as well as the involvement of artists, lenders, donors and sponsors in exhibitions. They were drafted in response to a specific query in the AAM accreditation process, and are intended only to provide broad guidelines, rather than being proscriptive.

I. REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN – Pamela Reynolds

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, at 12:06 pm. She welcomed everyone and thanked them for attending today. President Reynolds announced that the new trustees appointed by the Governor are Tom Farrell, Cynthia Fralin, John Luke, Jim McGlothlin, and Michael Schewel. The Governor also reappointed Suzanne Mastracco and John Staelin. Mrs. Reynolds said we are very excited to welcome these new board members and pleased to have Suzanne and John continue as Trustees.

Mrs. Reynolds said she has been working with Pete Wagner and the Director creating an Advancement Committee co-chaired by Trustee Barbara-lyn Morris and Foundation Director Ranjit Sen. She explained that this committee will provide a forum for museum volunteers and support groups and related museum departments to provide a formal arena for essential discussion and action and to promote collegial exchanges. Agustin Rodriguez like the idea of the Advancement Committee saying it will keep the Museum vibrant and relevant.

The President said the Top Ten Fund Campaign Executive Committee has been working very hard and noted that our new Trustee, John Luke, is the co-chairman of that group.

II. REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR – Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges reported that this is the first meeting for Alexis Vaughn, our new Deputy Director for Sales and Marketing. He told the group that Ms. Vaughn was the former Chief Operating Officer of the North Carolina Museum of Art and has worked for Citicorp. He said we are delighted that she is here and he knows she will make things happen.

The Director told of a gift offer of small pictures of 20th century art from a collecting couple to the nation saying that the couple asked the National Gallery of Art to choose a museum from each state to receive part of their gift. The Virginia Museum of Fine Arts was chosen from Virginia which, he said, is quite an honor. He noted that this gift adds a number of artists to our collection that are not now represented.

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Pauley and seconded by Dr. Claiborne, Jr. that the Executive Committee authorizes the Director to accept the gift offer of fifty pieces of contemporary art with the understanding that recommendations for accession will follow the proscribed process. Motion carried.
III. REPORT OF THE FOUNDATION – Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

Herbert Claiborne III reported that the Foundation Board met on July 29, 2008 and for the first time adopted an operating budget of over $10 million. Mr. Claiborne said that the investment results showed that it was not a good quarter. He noted that Davenport & Company LLC helped prepare a plan for the $20 million tax exempt bond issue for financing the Expansion with Wachovia as the underwriter.

IV. REPORT OF THE FISCAL OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE – Thurston R. Moore, Chairman

Thurston Moore asked the group to refer to the FY 2009 Combined State and Local Operating Budget sheet in their folders. He explained that this was a preliminary budget and we will know the real budget probably mid year when the Governor announces his budget cuts. Carol Amato reviewed the budget as it now stands and said we must prepare for reductions. She explained that we are holding eight positions and not filling them until we hear what the reductions will be. She said the newspapers are reporting that the state budget shortfall could be $1 billion or more. Ms. Amato took questions from the group.

Thurston Moore asked if there were any more questions on the budget and there being none, the following motion was proposed.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Moore and seconded by Mr. Rodriguez that the Executive and Fiscal Oversight Committees approve the budget as presented by Ms. Amato with the understanding that budget cuts are expected. Motion carried.

Pamela Reynolds thanked Ms. Amato, Dave Barbour, and Leon Garnett for their hard work on the budget. Ms. Amato noted the Dave Barbour manages our budget process with incredible detail and Leon Garnett works hard on our Financial Services and Accounting and assures that all the state rules are followed. She said the final report from the auditors came with a bulletin saying that the focus of future audits will change to put more emphasis on how the institution is managed and the auditors will want to meet with the Trustees about two times per year.

Ms. Amato reported that in the auditor’s review of VMFA he felt we were too small an agency to have three people authorized for full access to the accounting system. We have complied with the auditor’s recommendations for staff access and authority related to the accounting system. The other finding was that we, along with many other state agencies, were not in full compliance with Homeland Security’s procedures to deal with non citizens on staff. A training course has been held to assure that we understand and comply with all requirements. Nothing was found wrong with our accounting. The report will be sent out by the auditor to VMFA’s trustees.
V. REPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE – Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Ms. Goode reported that the Government Affairs Committee will meet on September 16 and our special guest will be Anthony “Tony” Maggio, Higher Educational and Capital Outlay Analyst for the House Appropriations Committee. He will speak on the Commonwealth’s 21st Century Capital Improvement Plan adopted by the 2008 General Assembly.

Ms. Goode noted that Pam Reynolds and Alex Nyerges hosted the Attorney General for a hard hat tour and dinner last week and plans are underway to do the same for the Lieutenant Governor. She said that Sunday night members of the House Appropriations Committee, including Chairman Lacey Putney, and members of the Senate Finance Committee came for a hard hat tour and supper. Another such event is scheduled for October 19 for those who did not attend last Sunday.

VI. REPORT OF MUSEUM EXPANSION COMMITTEE
– Dr. Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr., Chairman

Dr. Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr., Chairman of the Museum Expansion Committee, announced that if anyone present had questions on the Museum Expansion project, he and Richard Woodward would be happy to answer them.

No additional business was brought before the Committee, and the meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.

I. Remarks by the Chairman

Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:10 pm and started out the New Year with an elegant champagne toast to 2008. Mrs. Reynolds thanked Suzanne Hall for all the VMFA mentions in the Art Home magazine and noted that the Richmond Times Dispatch ran an article on our expansion yesterday. The President told the group that the New York Times had an interesting article on the new Roanoke museum that our former trustee, Jenny Taubman, and her husband Nick have supported. The President announced the sad news that former trustee, Dr. Francis Foster, died Sunday and his funeral will be held on Saturday. Also friend of the Museum Dr. John McClanahan, widower of Mary Tyler Freeman Cheek McClanahan, passed away last week. His memorial service will be held in the spring.

Mrs. Reynolds said that the Governor has appointed Alfonso L. Carney, Jr. to replace Judge C. N. Jenkins, Jr. who resigned from the board. In his professional career, Al was Vice-President and Associate General Counsel – Corporate Affairs of Altria Group Inc. from 1990-2005. Since 2006 he has been a principal of Rockwood Partners LLC of New York. He is a graduate of Trinity College, University of Virginia School of Law and attended the Parker School of International Law, Columbia University. Among his board memberships, Al served as a Thomas Jefferson Foundation Trustee from 1999-2007, a Trinity College Trustee, 2002 to the present, and a University of Virginia Law School Foundation Trustee from 2003 to the present. He is married to Cassandra E. Henderson, a prominent New York physician. Al will join us for the Board quarterly meetings on February 20th and 21st.

Mrs. Reynolds mentioned the annual letter she sent to trustees listing the accomplishments of 2007 and goals for 2008 saying she would like trustees to add their own goals for VMFA to the list. She commended Alex Nyerges for leading us through an amazing last year and a half and thanked him and his wife, Kathryn, for their hard work which is much appreciated.

II. Report of the Director

Alex Nyerges gave the attendance report of 10,316 visitors for LOOK HERE Mystery!, which closed on December 30, 2007. He announced that the Boudin exhibition had 6,562 visitors through the end of December and has been extended an extra three weeks through February 17 thanks to the cooperation of the National Gallery. The Director added that next week brings the statewide opening of LOOK HERE Speed at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center in Newport News.

Mr. Nyerges reported that the Governor addressed the agency heads yesterday saying the budget is moving forward. The Governor noted that he moved the state employee salary increases from the end of 2008 to July of 2009 to coincide with the fiscal year. The Director felt the Governor gave an upbeat presentation.

III. Report of the Foundation – Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

Mr. Claiborne reported that the Foundation has continued its engagement of Williams Mullen to assist with positioning the Museum’s budget requests before members of the General Assembly. In addition, he said, for this session only, we have engaged Capitol Results, a firm that specializes in broader media communications aimed at government officials and other opinion makers. The Foundation is also underwriting the cost of the January 22 dinner honoring state officials.
The Foundation President indicated that the December 31, 2007 investment statements were received yesterday and the staff and investment advisor have not completed their analysis. He said that while they are prepared for a less than robust report, the diversification in the asset allocation plan will continue to buffer us from some of the market volatility.

Mr. Claiborne reported on the Governance Committee (formerly the Audit Committee) saying that continuing the Foundation’s policy to be in compliance with best practices, a Request for Proposal was issued for auditing and tax services. Yesterday, the Committee interviewed four firms. He noted that the process was beneficial to the Committee members and Staff in learning more about the expected changes in the public accounting standards and Internal Revenue Service revisions to the tax returns they file. Reference checks are being made and the Committee will shortly determine the firm recommended for engagement at the Foundation’s February 5, 2008 Board of Directors meeting.

President Claiborne concluded by noting that Judy Gleach, their Financial and Administrative Coordinator, will be retiring in February. Her successor, Julie Thomas, has been in training for the past twelve months.

IV. Report of the Chief Operating Officer – Carol Amato

Carol Amato reported that Governor Kaine’s proposed budget for the Museum reflects belt tightening due to the lower than projected state revenues. She said we were very pleased to be included as one of the Governor’s key initiatives and he was very generous with us. In the capital outlay budget he funded three proposals we asked for including moving the carpentry shop, funding the boiler, and the chiller. Robinson House was not included however, as the state felt the cost per square foot was too high for office space. Ms. Amato suggested re-envisioning the use for the House or raising the funds ourselves. As all other state agencies, Governor Kaine recommended no maintenance reserve money for the Museum in the first year, and $615,000 for 2010. The Governor’s budget includes an increase of $3,112,794 in General Funds to support the operating budget for fiscal year 2008-2010. She went on to review the Governor’s budget proposal in detail.

The Director noted that due to David Bradley, Carol Amato, the trustees and others, we did extraordinarily well in the Governor’s budget. He said we will try to be included in the bond issue which contains mostly large new projects. Since we do not have any large projects, we will package things together to try for inclusion and will search for a sponsor.

President Reynolds thanked Mr. Nyerges, Mr. Bradley and Ms. Amato for getting us to this point. She also thanked Joan Murphy, Special Counsel and Assistant Attorney General for her help on a daily basis.

David Bradley added that we were the only cultural institution that received a budget increase. He said that many non-state agencies will ask why we were given increases when they did not receive any state funding. We will have to firmly explain that we must bring this building on-line in the next fiscal year. He noted that from the end of November through mid December private visits were held with General Assembly members instead of trying to see them now when there is a crush of people. It is hard to predict how things will shake out with the changes in legislative leadership and the many retirements, but we have met with the new leadership.

Alex Nyerges said we will need more money in 2010 and we are working on determining the amount needed. If we do not receive more funding our strategies could be to wait, do without things and consolidate issues, generate more revenue, or increase our development efforts. He said we look forward to hiring our Sales and Marketing Division Head who could bring revenue generating ideas to the table.

V. Report of the Fiscal Oversight Committee - John R. Staelin, Vice-Chairman

Mr. Staelin explained that the Core Needs amount raised some concerns and we weren’t sure what the Governor’s budget would provide, so it was decided to do a more in depth study of the Core Needs. Carol Amato is working on format options for reporting the figures and should have these by January 15th. Ms. Amato said in the last three weeks she has been collecting information from staff on additional expenses needed or reductions for their projects and by February additional financial information will be available. She thanked Richard Tilghman and Thurston Moore for their help with this task.

At 12:50 pm the meeting went into closed session.

Motion: proposed by Dr. Claiborne, and seconded by Mr. Curtis that the meeting go into closed session under Section 2.2-3711 (A), (9) and (30) of the Freedom of Information Act for discussion of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants, and for discussion of the terms and scope of the contracts for the expansion, sculpture garden and parking deck where discussion in an open session would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Museum.

Motion carried.

At 12:55 pm, by motion proposed, seconded and carried, the meeting resumed in open session.

Motion: proposed by Dr. Claiborne, seconded by Mr. Staelin that the Committee certify that the closed session just held was conducted in compliance with Virginia State law, as set forth in the Certification Resolution distributed.

Motion carried.

A roll call vote was taken, the results of which are outlined in the Certification Resolution.

Mr. Tilghman asked if the Executive Committee members who were not members of the Museum Expansion Committee could be added to that committee. President Reynolds said they could be added if they would like. Those members are Meg Clement, Susan Goode, Betty Harris, John Staelin and Tina Walls.
VI. Report of Development - Peter M. Wagner, Vice President for Development

Pete Wagner reported two unusual upcoming events that he hoped would be beneficial to our fundraising efforts. Tonight we host the first of our 2008 annual fund cultivation events that we are calling ‘rush parties.’ These cocktail receptions and private tours of Boudin will be hosted by Pam and Major Reynolds, Freddie and Lawrence Gray, Susie and Ben Rawles and Martha and John Sherman. The response has been very good with more than 75 guests expected to attend.

The other event is next Tuesday when we will host “Collect Yourself! Building, Maintaining, and Sharing Your Art Collection” beginning at 6:00 pm with cocktails in the Marble Hall. John Ravenal will speak on collecting, and Ellen Spong, of Trustco Capital Management, will talk about things to think about when considering your collection and estate planning. We have about 100 people attending this event. The not so hidden agenda for the evening is to have people think about the Museum as they consider their estate planning.

Mr. Wagner announced that as of January 7, 2008, we have raised $712,000 for the Annual Fund. This is $108,000 more than we had last year at this time or an 18% increase. Also, regarding the annual fund, Birch Douglass generously raised his annual contribution to the fund by 25 percent. Taking his lead, five other Directors and Trustees have raised their gifts twenty-five to one hundred percent, resulting in a more than $10,000 increase to date.

Pete Wagner added that Gina Rawles made a $1 million contribution. He experienced his first drive-by pledge payment over the holidays when Gina and her driver pulled up to the curb and handed him a $200,000 check through a crack in the window. They then zoomed off into the afternoon. Last but not least, Mr. Wagner announced two very handsome gifts from trustees John Curtis and Tina Walls. The gifts will be used towards items outlined in the Core Needs.

The meeting adjourned at 1:10 pm.

I. Report of the Chairman - Pamela Reynolds

Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:00 pm and thanked trustees and staff for their hard work. She especially thanked our wonderful Director Alex Nyerges, Dr. Claiborne, Richard Woodward and Carol Amato. She noted that the Campaign Executive Committee has been working very hard on the donor list. President Reynolds welcomed Bill Axselle and Sandy Bowen of Williams Mullen who join us today.
II. Report of the Director – Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges said that he and the staff have been working very hard. Interviews for the Chief Conservator position are being conducted and three very excellent candidates have been identified. He noted that he travels to Lynchburg tonight for the Discover Silver opening reception at the Daura Gallery. The Director added that our staff has held a successful claymation workshop in Sussex County for teachers, which shows that our statewide programs are going strong.

III. Report of the Foundation - Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

Mr. Claiborne reported that the Foundation continues to work through the details of completing the acquisition of the Fischer Collection of German Expressionist Art. Discussions are underway between the attorneys for the Foundation and the Fischer Estate on whether any changes to the financing component might be more advantageous to both parties in light of the current conditions in the credit markets. Clearly, however, once this gift/purchase arrangement becomes public knowledge it will be an extraordinary story of art collecting and philanthropy.

The Foundation will hold its 32nd Annual Meeting on next Tuesday, October 28. Among the topics will be progress on the Top Ten Fund, election of new Directors and Officers, performance of the Investment Portfolio, and the Annual Audit.

In terms of investments, Mr. Claiborne said we have seen a preliminary report through September 30 and the results are obviously disappointing. The October numbers will be even worse. However, we have a sound asset allocation plan, excellent advice from Colonial Consulting, and an intelligent and focused Investment Committee that takes a long term view.

IV. Report of the Chief Operating Officer - Carol Amato

Carol Amato reported that the Governor’s Chief of Staff has asked agencies to plan for budget reductions of 5%, 10%, and 15%. Ms. Amato said that 5% of our budget would be $500,000 out of the general funds, 10% would be $1 million and 15% would be $1.5 million. The ten and fifteen percent levels will be very difficult without affecting staff and any layoffs or changes will be permanent. She said the process will start tomorrow and it is very challenging. She said if layoffs are required the first to go would be the part time, temporary, and contract workers before the full time employees. Alex Nyerges explained that we have frozen positions and have $900,000 in reserve for opening the museum but as he and Carol looked at the budget process, they decided to take at least $200,000 of that reserve each year to protect us from layoffs so that we have the staff to open the building. Needed are housekeepers, electricians, HVAC technicians and Visitors Services staff and we could not open with these people missing.
Ms. Amato noted that she has been through 15 state budget cuts over the years and all were at the maximum cut. She said she wrote to the Secretary of Education that we have used our reserve and we cannot do a permanent reduction as we are in construction mode and need additional people to operate the new wing. To open we will need $1 million in energy costs and $250,000 - $270,000 for security. Ms. Amato has heard that next fiscal year could bring an even larger shortfall. She noted that is where we stand and we will do our part under our very unique circumstance of opening a new wing in hard economic times.

V. Report of Government Affairs - Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode and David Bradley noted that now is the time to be more proactive with Government Affairs and they have a two pronged approach for the Legislators and Administration. The first goal is to hold the line on a 15% cut for FY 08-09. The next is to lobby the General Assembly members to protect VMFA from further cuts in the 2009-2010 budget. Bill Axselle and Sandy Bowen of Williams Mullen were present and explained that VMFA has a perception of being a well run institution among the state finance staff which is good. They noted that the General Assembly is more important this year as the Governor has cut the budget 15%, which is the maximum he can cut, and then the General Assembly could cut the budget more. Mr. Axselle explained our unique situation is that we must open this building that the state has financed and we have no other option. He said that Legislative visits need to start now so that Legislators understand that VMFA is a priority item in the budget that just can’t be cut.

David Bradley distributed the 2009 Government Affairs Plan Outline document and reviewed it with the Committee members who discussed our options.

Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:10 pm and distributed Valentine’s Day goodies to the group. She thanked Suzanne Mastracco, Tina Walls and others who participated in the successful Peninsula Fine Arts Center opening of LOOK HERE Speed in Newport News last month.
II. Report of the Director

Alex Nyerges reported that tomorrow he travels to Martinsville, Danville and South Boston as part of the statewide effort to take the pulse of the Commonwealth and our partners. He noted that the Cecilia Beaux Exhibition opened February 2\(^{nd}\) at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia, stating that this is a major exhibition and our own Sylvia Yount was one of the curators of the show.

The Director explained that a small Restaurant Operations Sub-Committee of the Fiscal Oversight Committee met yesterday to analyze the profit center of Food Service. This committee is chaired by John Curtis and includes Carol Amato and Cathy Turner who are looking at how to fulfill the Business Plan in regards to Food Service.

III. Report of the Government Affairs Committee - Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode reported that the January 22\(^{nd}\) Legislative Dinner was a success even though many guests found they could not attend at the last minute. The next day many remarked that it was very well received and a nice break from the General Assembly session. Ms. Goode said the statewide effort is crucial and resonates with the legislators who have given us a great deal of support. David Bradley commented that the evening was an important and successful event. He said that key people were there such as the Vice-Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, the Staff Director of the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate and House analysts responsible for the Museum’s budget. Mr. Bradley indicated that it is difficult to get a clear fix on where the General Assembly is now and the next two weeks are critical. He promised to keep the group updated and said the session is scheduled to end on March 8.

At 12:20 pm the meeting went into closed session.

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Goode, and seconded by Mrs. Reynolds that the meeting go into closed session under Section 2.2-3711 (A), (8), (9) and (30) of the Freedom of Information Act

- to discuss and consider matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and fundraising activities, and grants and contracts for services to be performed, and
- for discussion of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants, and
- for discussion of the terms and scope of the contracts for the expansion, sculpture garden and parking deck where discussion in an open session would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Museum.

Motion carried.
At 1:55 pm, by motion proposed, seconded and carried, the meeting resumed in open session.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Tilghman, seconded by Mrs. Mastracco that the Committee certify that the closed session just held was conducted in compliance with Virginia State law, as set forth in the Certification Resolution distributed. Motion carried.

I. Remarks by the Chairman

Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:15 pm and said that this morning the Museum Expansion Committee held its first meeting in the McGlothlin Wing along with a tour led by Richard Woodward. She thanked all who made that possible and noted that Tina Walls was ill at home and will conference in to this meeting. Mrs. Reynolds reminded all to read the articles in Sunday's Richmond Times Dispatch by Alex Nyerges and Betsy White, Director of the William King Regional Art Center.
II. Report of the Director

Alex Nyerges reported that the Fabergé Society will meet tonight to choose a proposal to fund. He announced that the Ryan McGinness Project has been pulled from the list of proposals as we have had a change of plans. The Director discussed the recent museum raids in California saying that AAMD will soon have new rules and regulations. He noted that the raids were not as much about stolen art as they were about tax evasion. He reassured the Trustees that we have been above board in all our dealings here at VMFA and great scrutiny and care goes into each object. He noted that we had repatriated two works that were looted in the war and we were proactive when we saw reason to be. Mr. Nyerges told the group not to worry about the art thefts recently in the news as we work hard with our security staff to ensure safety. He added that Carol Amato and the Staff have incorporated additional security measures into the plans for the new Wing.

The Director discussed his trip last week to Rappahannock Community College in Warsaw. There he and the Museum staff had lively discussions with our friends and partners in Gloucester and the Northern Neck. This visit produced interesting suggestions for our Statewide report. He thanked Sandy Rusak and Susan Ferrell for the hard work involved in making these important trips happen.

III. Report of the Chief Operating Officer – Carol Amato

Carol Amato had no report.

IV. Report of the Foundation – David Bradley, Vice-President for Finance and Administration

David Bradley explained that Herbert A. Claiborne III, President of the Foundation, sends his regards and regrets that he is tied up in a business matter and not able to attend this meeting. Mr. Bradley said the Foundation has no report.

V. Report of the Government Affairs Committee – Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode reported that the differing versions of the House and Senate adopted budgets are now in a Conference Committee. The twelve conferees are expected to finish their deliberations tonight. Officially the report will be available on Thursday, although we may know something earlier.

She said the conferees have been addressing some very complex issues like mental health, bench marking the standards of learning, employee pay raises, and most recently the transportation funding plan for Northern Virginia and Hampton Roads being declared unconstitutional by the Virginia Supreme Court.

She went on to say that the Museum has been working to restore a reversion of FY 2007 funds ($137,051) adopted by the Senate. We believe this had more to do with analysts misunderstanding that most of these funds have already been committed. In addition, we are working to hold on to two employee positions originally recommended by the Governor, but later proposed for cuts as a way to address the deteriorating revenue picture.

Suzanne Hall reported on the Fellowship Program saying that twenty recipients had photos taken with their legislators, John Staelin and Alex Nyerges at the General Assembly last week. Ms. Hall said they were met with a warm reception and were delighted to meet their representatives. They returned to the Museum for a lunch hosted by the Director. She went on to say that the Museum has awarded more than $3.8 million to 1,035 professional and student artists to date and money for the Fellowships comes from a privately endowed fund initiated in 1940 by John Lee Pratt of Fredericksburg (husband of Lillian Pratt). John Curtis noted that the Fellowship gifts significantly change the way these artist recipients observe the institution.

VI. Report of the Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee - John R. Curtis, Jr., Chairman

John Curtis explained that the Altria offices are divesting themselves of their corporate collection of art and since we last met, Tina Walls came to Alex Nyerges with a terrific gift of a number of original drawings and artworks by Sol LeWitt and others in our collection. Altria is gifting museums around the country and they have a deadline which falls before our May meeting dates so we must bring this to the Executive Committee. The following motion was then proposed.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Curtis and seconded by Mrs. Reynolds that the Executive Committee authorizes the Director to accept the gift of art from Altria with the understanding that recommendations for accession will follow the proscribed process. Motion carried.

The group thanked Tina Walls for the opportunity for this gift.

VII. Report of Development - Peter Wagner, Vice-President for Development

Peter Wagner reported on the Joint Trustee and Foundation Director meeting held last Tuesday. He said that at that meeting the VMFA Foundation Board approved a motion to move forward with the Top Ten Fund so the campaign is officially underway. Mr. Wagner mentioned that leadership enlistment is the first step. He reported that to date we have already raised $4.4 million dollars in private funds from individuals, corporations and foundations towards our campaign goals. He was very happy to announce that Foundation Director, Edie Cabaniss, just contributed an additional $1 million to the campaign.

Mr. Wagner brought the Committee’s attention to the resolution in their folders. He said the Mellon Foundation is asking the Trustee Executive Committee to adopt this resolution and he indicated that the VMFA Foundation Board adopted it last month. The resolution will assign and restrict the gifts to meet the matching requirements of the grant to establish a permanent endowment for the Ancient Art Curator position. The resolution supports the request that funds be released to VMFA’s Foundation on behalf of VMFA. The following motion was proposed.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Tilghman and seconded by Mr. Douglass that the following resolution be adopted by the VMFA Board of Trustees Executive Committee.

From August 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation has received an additional $175,000 in gifts designated by the donor(s) to match the $1,000,000 challenge grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to endow the position of Curator of Ancient Art: $125,000 from the Moses D. Nunnally Charitable Lead Trust (final payment on a $500,000 pledge); and $50,000 from Drs. William J. and Mary Ann S. Frable (payment on a $500,000 pledge).

BY RESOLUTION, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Trustees assigns these gifts - funds received and funds pledged - to meet the matching requirements of The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation challenge grant and restricts the income on the gifts to the uses set forth above.

Motion carried.

Richard Tilghman asked Peter Wagner and Richard Woodward if it is possible to hold donor dinners in the expansion site just toured. Mr. Tilghman added that we should use the site every chance we get. Mr. Woodward noted that between now and May would be a good time for that and weather is a factor to bear in mind when scheduling dates for the tours. Mrs. Reynolds thanked Mr. Tilghman for the suggestion. She then announced that Jacquelin Crebbs will give an audit report at the next Executive Committee meeting and the report will be sent out to committee members for their review before April 1.

The meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.

She told the group that Trustee Frances Lewis had donated her one-of-a-kind gowns, suits, dresses and shoes from the 1980s to the Valentine Richmond History Center and passed an article from Style magazine on the subject.
II. Report of the Director - Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges reported that the Fabergé Dinner went well and the March 6th Muse awards event was a huge success. Sandy Rusak noted that the Teen Symposium was given twice, once here and once in Fairfax County. The topic was Japanese Art and fifty plus teens and teachers attended.

The Director said that the Philippa Glanville Gans Lecture and Wine Tasting attracted a sell-out crowd. He added the exciting news that Celeste Fetta and David Bradley gave Retired Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O’Connor a tour on March 17th.

Mr. Nyerges reported that the second round of interviews for the Deputy Director of Sales and Marketing has been planned. He noted that there are three good candidates, two from Virginia and one from North Carolina and it will be interesting to see which will rise to the top.

President Reynolds announced that Alex Nyerges, Carol Amato, and David Bradley did a terrific job working to get the Museum’s funding in the state budget. She read the trustee e-mail responses to the good budget news.

III. Report of the Chief Operating Officer - Carol Amato

Carol Amato gave a quick update saying that detailed information on the General Assembly budget was sent to the Trustees in March. She reported that the reversion did not happen as it was deleted from the budget so the funding for this year is intact with only a four percent reduction that was accomplished in September. The General Assembly has announced a $17.5 million reduction. This means we will need to cut 1.5% from FY9 and FY10 and submit our plan to the Governor by June 1. We will be able to manage this by working with the Division Heads to cut some things we are now doing. She mentioned that the budget does take care of our energy and insurance costs and enough for some additional staff to help us achieve our goals. She expressed thanks to David Bradley and the Trustees for their effective support of the budget proposals. Ms. Amato also thanked the Statewide support of Suzanne Mastracoco, Sandy Rusak, Susan Ferrell and Robin Nicholson, without whom this may have turned out differently.

IV. Report of the Foundation - David Bradley, Vice-President for Finance and Administration

Mr. Bradley reported that yesterday the Foundation Executive Committee met and one of the topics was the retirement of Rusty Ryland, the Foundation’s counsel for nearly 30 years. Mr. Bradley noted that Mr. Ryland served as Deputy Attorney General in the past and as such provided counsel to the Museum. He was involved in the West Wing building project and gave advice on negotiating issues such as gifts, etc. Mr. Bradley reported that the new Williams Mullins team to succeed Mr. Ryland is Brian Ball, gatekeeper and registered agent who is well known in the General Assembly and the corporate community, and Farhad Aghdami who works with trusts and estates in the tax section and is on the Community Foundation and is well connected in town.
V. Report of the Government Affairs Committee - Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode reported that the General Assembly budget results speak for themselves. She expressed thanks to those present for what they did for the cause. Ms. Goode pointed out that to fully appreciate the results, one must view them in context of a turbulent economy and the reduction in State revenues.

In addition, she said there were the expected political differences given the gains the Democrats made in the last election. While we publicly saw some animosity she indicated that was only a small portion of what was going on behind the scenes. Fortunately that did not color their thinking about VMFA.

The strategy begun last summer by our Trustees, Foundation Directors, staff, and outside advisors served us very well. She concluded that our traveling special exhibition and the wonderful media coverage all made for a winning formula.

Ms. Goode added that it is clear that our Director, Alex Nyerges, fully understands and embraces the importance of forging strong relationships with the State and, in particular, putting hard resources behind the statewide outreach effort. She pointed out that his sustained commitment and that of this Board will be necessary if we are to continue to achieve our goals.

At 12:33 pm the meeting went into closed session.

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Reynolds, and seconded by Mr. Douglass that the meeting go into closed session under Section 2.2-3711 (A), (8), (9) and (30) of the Freedom of Information Act

to discuss and consider matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and fundraising activities, and grants and contracts for services to be performed, and

for discussion of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants, and for discussion of the terms and scope of the contracts for the expansion, sculpture garden and parking deck where discussion in an open session would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Museum.

Motion carried.

At 1:25 pm, by motion proposed, seconded and carried, the meeting resumed in open session.
Motion: proposed by Mrs. Reynolds, seconded by Ms. Walls that the Committee certify that the closed session just held was conducted in compliance with Virginia State law, as set forth in the Certification Resolution distributed. Motion carried.

A roll call vote was taken, the results of which are outlined in the Certification Resolution.

The meeting adjourned at 1:29 pm.

I.  Report of the Chairman - Pamela Reynolds

Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:10 pm and announced that two special guests were in attendance today to give an overview of the Museum’s Performance Contract for Energy Conservation program. Carol Amato introduced Michael Slatner, our Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, and Charles Barksdale from the Department of Mines, Minerals and Energy. Mr. Barksdale explained that VMFA’s energy audit with Siemens Buildings Technologies has been completed and it is time to move forward with the terms of the contract which he reviewed. This contract will allow us to borrow money for new equipment to give us lower utility costs and then use the money saved to make the loan payments. Mr. Slatner noted that there is a dire need to replace the cooling towers by this winter to keep everything running efficiently. Mr. Nyerges said we will be getting new equipment and saving on energy costs so this contract is a godsend to us. The following motion was proposed.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Tilghman and seconded by Mr. Douglass that the Executive Committee approve the Museum’s participation in the state’s performance contract for energy conservation. Motion carried.

President Reynolds noted that the list of board nominees was sent to the Governor and she and Alex Nyerges visited the Governor’s Office to discuss them. We now await his decision. She said the Trustees will be traveling by bus to Roanoke for an overnight trip on November 19 to visit the new Taubman Museum and dine with their trustees. Further information on the trip will be sent.

Mrs. Reynolds announced that an excellent Campaign Executive Committee has been recruited and the current list has been distributed. She was thrilled to announce that John Luke, Chairman and CEO of MeadWestvaco, has agreed to serve as the co-chairman of the campaign with Pam Reynolds. She thanked Thurston Moore, Alex Nyerges and Pete Wagner for their hard work on this. Tina Walls remarked that it was terrific to have Mr. Luke as co-chairman and Mr. Moore indicated that we are all very excited. Pamela Reynolds said the campaign vice-chairmen are Dr. Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr., Michael Schewel, and Tina Walls. Mrs. Reynolds thanked Mr. Douglass and Ms. Walls for their work on the lead gifts for the campaign. She went on to thank all those present for what they have done and what they will do for VMFA.

II. Report of the Director - Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges announced that we are all pleased that Alexis Vaughn has accepted the position of Deputy Director for Sales and Marketing and will start work on July 21. He told the group that Ms. Vaughn was the former Chief Operating Officer of the North Carolina Museum of Art and has worked for Citicorp. He thanked Pam Reynolds, Tina Walls, Nancy Lund, staff, trustees and former trustees who met with Ms. Vaughn during the hiring process. Of all the applicants, it was determined that she had the greatest experience in our field in addition to her business and banking experience.

Mr. Nyerges reported on the Statewide Task Force activity saying that he and staff and trustee members have taken 13 visits to partners across Virginia and have now covered the entire Virginia map. He said we will be providing the Task Force with a draft report to review over the summer and then take it to the Full Board at the September meeting. Mr. Nyerges noted that people really appreciate what we are doing out there as we add value to what they do to serve their communities. He added that Jeffrey Allison, Paul Mellon Collection Educator, and Trent Nicholas, Coordinator of Media Resources, have real fan clubs around the state. Alex Nyerges said that what the Task Force will help solidify our statewide position.
III. Report of the Chief Operating Officer - Carol Amato

Carol Amato said she has been talking to Nancy Raybin who has now agreed to work with us on our Strategic Plan and her contract should be signed shortly. Ms. Raybin has spent time with Thurston Moore, Pam Reynolds, Herbert Claiborne III, Pete Wagner, and David Bradley discussing all aspects of the strategic plan. It is hoped that this process will start in July and finish by May 2009. Ms. Amato noted that Ms. Raybin even read the state’s strategic planning requirements and had a positive opinion of them. Ms. Amato then read the four goals for the Museum and Ms. Raybin.

1. To demonstrate that the VMFA can provide strong leadership, understand the needs of its multiple constituencies, craft a plan that resonates across Virginia and serve as a model for other states.

2. Create a blueprint for programming, financing, and operating as one of the Top Ten Museums. Identify the key benchmarks, design the strategies/tactics for achieving success.
   - Success in raising $60 million in capital and endowment money for the immediate “Top Ten Fund” campaign (2008-2010)
   - Success in creating a longer term strategic plan, on-going fundraising plans and organizational/operational structure for 2010-2015 to secure a “Top Ten” position

3. Design more efficient and effective systems— formal and informal— to manage this complex organization and deliver better than expected service to the key constituencies.

4. Gain a broader understanding of the total financial and human resources available and dedicated to advance the Museum.

Ms. Amato said this planning would be completed by the Executive committees of the Board of Trustees and the Foundation Board. Ms. Raybin is a longtime VMFA member, lives in Caroline County, and has her business in New York City. Alex Nyerges remarked that she has good insight into the non-profit world, has strategic planning experience, is a Virginian and loves Virginia. He said we probably wouldn’t get that with many New York consultants. President Reynolds said the strategic planning process will be an amazing journey for the Executive committees, staff and others.

Carol Amato reported that we have been very meticulous about filling staff positions. The Director has been approving some and we are holding some due to the current economic situation. Ms. Amato said it is likely the Governor’s economic advisors will recommend a budget adjustment in August and we must be ready.

Ms. Amato reported that the auditor has been here and finished his review through 2007 with two management findings. He felt we were too small an agency to have three people authorized to have full access to the accounting system. We have complied with the auditor’s recommendations for staff access and authority related to the accounting system. The other finding was that we, along with many other state agencies, were not in full compliance with Homeland Security’s procedures to deal with non citizens on staff. A training course has been held to assure that we understand and comply with all requirements. Nothing was found wrong with our accounting. The report will be sent out by the auditor to VMFA’s trustees.
IV. Report of the Foundation - Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

Mr. Claiborne reported that with less than two weeks to go, the annual fund appears to be on target to reach its goal of $1.4 million. He said an excellent Campaign Executive Committee (CEC) has been recruited as President Reynolds just announced, and they are in the process of scheduling the CEC’s first meeting. He noted that approximately $4.7 million has been raised for the campaign to date.

President Claiborne added that a Request for Proposal to refinance the existing $30 million bond issue and add another $20 million was sent to Bank of America, BB&T, SunTrust, Wachovia, and US Bank. Bids have been analyzed by Davenport and reviewed yesterday by the Subcommittee of the Investment Committee. While further negotiations are underway, it appears that the new terms will be only slightly higher than in 2005. The full Investment Committee and the Board of Directors will vote on the transaction at their July 29 meetings.

Mr. Claiborne said that Foundation staff and legal counsel are working on the details of the Fischer Collection acquisition. The process has been slightly delayed because both Sotheby’s and Christies (as specified in the purchase agreement) could not schedule their appraisals until June and July. The fair market values trigger certain timing and cash payout provisions in the agreement. The closing is no later than December 13, 2008. He concluded by saying that new auditors, Goodman & Company, were on site last week for their preliminary work and after the fiscal year closes they will return to complete the audit.

V. Other Business

Richard Woodward noted that he chose his seat at the table so that he could watch the steel workers busily erecting the firewall by the 1986 wing.

Suzanne Hall announced the sad news that Murry DePillars, retired Dean of the School of Arts at Virginia Commonwealth University, passed away on May 31. His memorial service will be held this Saturday, June 21 at noon in the Chapel in Coburn Hall at Virginia Union University. All are encouraged to attend. VMFA is honoring DePillars with a special showing of his 1997 painting “From the Mississippi Delta” in the vaulted hall.

The meeting adjourned at 1:07 pm.

The plan will be established to provide contributions that otherwise would have been made on Mr. Nyerges’ behalf to the Virginia Retirement System plan on his account, but for the limitations imposed by Internal Revenue Code section 401(a) (17). I. Report of the Chairman - Pamela Reynolds

Chairman, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:35 pm and thanked the Trustees and staff for all the extra work they are doing to make us one of the top ten institutions in the country. President Reynolds announced that she has created some new committees so that we can be the best we can be when the new wing opens. She has renamed the Artistic Oversight Committee the Artistic Committee and has made the Art Acquisitions Committee a full standing committee instead of a sub-committee. Thurston Moore and Eva Tieg Hardy are co-chairs of the new Organizational Excellence Task Force which will bring together people experienced in management and public administration to look at the ways we operate this institution and report back to the Strategic Planning Committee. Barbara-lyn Morris from the Board of Trustees and Ranjit Sen from the VMFA Foundation Board have been named co-chairmen of the Advancement Committee.

II. Report of the Director - Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges said that he and the staff have been working very hard on the Museum Expansion which will be discussed in Dr. Claiborne’s report. He added that Carol Amato has been working very hard on the budget submissions.

III. Report of the Chief Operating Officer - Carol Amato

Carol Amato reported that the Governor’s Chief of Staff has asked agencies to plan for budget reductions of 5%, 10%, and 15%. Ms. Amato said that 5% of our budget would be $500,000 out of the general funds, 10% would be $1 million and 15% would be $1.5 million. The ten and fifteen percent levels will be very difficult without affecting staff and any layoffs or changes will be permanent. She said the process will start tomorrow and it is very challenging. She said if layoffs are required the first to go would be the part time, temporary, and contract workers before the full time employees. The reductions are due to the state’s revenue which has not lived up to the projections of 6% growth as it is now at 1.8%.

IV. Report of the Foundation - Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

Mr. Claiborne reported that he has good news that the Foundation, through the Virginia Small Business Financing Authority, has completed a $20 million bond issue to benefit the Expansion Project.

He said Annual Giving leadership recruitment is underway. President Claiborne explained that this is a vital part of the Museum’s unrestricted revenue stream so if you are asked to serve (and when asked to give), he hopes everyone will enthusiastically respond to both opportunities.

At 12:50 pm the meeting went into closed session.

Motion: proposed by Dr. Claiborne, and seconded by Ms. Walls that the meeting go into closed session under Section 2.2-3711 (A), (9) and (30) of the Freedom of Information Act

for discussion of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants, and for discussion of the terms and scope of the contracts for the expansion, sculpture garden and parking deck where discussion in an open session would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Museum.

Motion carried.
At 1:30 pm, by motion proposed, seconded and carried, the meeting resumed in open session.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Tilghman and seconded by Dr. Harris that the Committee certify that the closed session just held was conducted in compliance with Virginia State law, as set forth in the Certification Resolution distributed. Motion carried.

A roll call vote was taken, the results of which are outlined in the Certification Resolution.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Moore and seconded by Mr. Douglass that the Executive Committee commend VMFA Management for its excellent negotiations and hard work on the Expansion Project. Motion carried.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The President, Pamela Reynolds called the meeting to order at 11:20 am and remarked that last night’s dinner at the Taubman Museum was fantastic. She commended Cynthia and Heywood Fralin for their support of this successful new museum. Mrs. Reynolds noted that we look forward to the opening of our new wing and the Taubman Museum is an inspiration to us all. President Reynolds commented that it is difficult to raise money especially during these hard economic times but we must remember that VMFA opened in the midst of the depression and we have confidence that we will get through this.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mrs. White, seconded by Mr. Cherry that the Minutes of the last meeting of the Full Board of Trustees held on the 17th of September 2008 be approved as distributed on the 18th of November 2008. Motion carried.

III. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

President Reynolds introduced Trustee John Luke who is co-chairman of the Top Ten Campaign. Mr. Luke reported that the Top Ten Fund has made significant progress since the Board of Trustees last met. The three gifts that were reported at our September Board meeting from Altria, an anonymous donor, and Susan and David Goode have brought our campaign total to date to $11.5 million.

He indicated that our efforts over the past two months have concentrated on organizing the potential donor list; meeting individually with the members of the Campaign
Executive Committee to consider prospect assignments, developing preliminary solicitation strategies; and holding several cultivating events to generate interest in the campaign’s goals. He explained that over the next several months, the focus will be to hold a series of hardhat tours and cultivating events to further develop enthusiasm for the Top Ten Fund; encourage the campaign leadership to follow through with their respective prospect assignments; conduct seven-figure solicitations when timely and appropriate; prepare written solicitation strategies and funding requests as needed; develop our marketing materials, such as a PowerPoint presentation that will define the parameters of the campaign and emphasize our case for support. All in all, the Top Ten Fund is on schedule. Mr. Luke said he looks forward to keeping the Board apprised of our progress in the months ahead.

Mrs. Reynolds called on new Trustee Tom Farrell who has agreed to co-chair our new Education and Statewide Partnerships Committee with Suzanne Mastracco. Mr. Farrell reported that letters of invitation to join this committee have gone out and the committee will assume oversight and formulation of policies with regard to the Museum’s educational offerings to audiences of all ages. He said that last year the Education and Statewide Partnerships Division served over 200,000 Virginians in their own communities as well as 63,000 people on campus. With the excitement of the transformative new McGlothlin wing, we know these numbers will only increase. He explained that this committee will foster greater public and legislative visibility for the Museum’s educational initiatives, expand our programs that support Virginia’s Standards of Learning, build our statewide partnership network, and ensure continued educational excellence and innovation. Mr. Farrell noted that with the recent conclusion of the Statewide Task Force that Suzanne Mastracco so ably chaired, the timing is excellent for the establishment of this committee as the staff implements the recommendations of the Task Force and moves the institution into the nation’s top ten. He announced that the first meeting will take place in December and he and Suzanne Mastracco look forward to reporting back to the Board in February.

IV. REMARKS BY THE DIRECTOR

Alex Nyerges remarked that the Museum staff and trustees had visited many art centers and galleries around the state this past year and found that people are hungry for our programs. Mr. Nyerges told the Board that he had just returned from a visit to France for the successful FRAME (French Regional and American Museum Exchange) meetings. He said that National Public Radio’s Noah Adams had been here recently to shadow him for a piece on Museums and he will notify the Trustees when he learns the time the piece will air. The Director announced that Anne Kenny-Urban on our staff has been invited by the Darden School to do a presentation on Risk Management and this is the first time the Darden School has tapped one of our administration staff for this purpose.

V. REPORT OF THE CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Carol Amato reported that each year the administration gives agencies an option to request more funds for the second year of the biennium. She said that this year it was by invitation only and VMFA was invited by the Governor to submit a proposal. Our request was for $2 million in additional costs related to the construction project, one million dollars for energy utilities for the new building and $250,000 – $270,000 for security for the new building. We also have staffing needs to serve the public in Visitor Services and we need housekeepers, HVAC technicians, etc. to care for the building. The state has options of giving us no more budget cuts in FY10 and giving us $386,000, or cutting our budget by 10% and giving us $1.6 million or giving us the full cut and then we would need $2 million. The increase in energy costs is a quarter of a million dollars for electricity and natural gas. The final word is that there is no guarantee that we would get the additional funding and that there may be additional reductions.

Ms. Amato said on December 17th when the Governor’s budget is released we will see where we stand and what we need to do. Even then there could be more changes by the General Assembly. Ms. Amato said that we will have to be brave, courageous and smart.

VI. REPORT OF THE FOUNDATION

Pete Wagner asked the Board members to read the one page report in each of their folders on the Foundation Board.

Mr. Wagner explained that in order to receive matching funds from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, a Board resolution is required stating that the funds raised will be restricted for the purpose of establishing a permanent endowment for the Curator of Ancient Art. The following motion was then proposed.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Cherry and seconded by Mr. Tattersall that the following resolution be adopted by the VMFA Full Board of Trustees.

Regarding The Andrew Mellon Foundation Challenge Grant, as of June 30, 2008, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation has received $790,000 in gifts designated by the donors to match the $1,000,000 challenge grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to endow the position of Curator of Ancient Art.

On October 28, 2008, the Board of Directors of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation committed $210,000 in the form of bridge funding to complete the funding of the endowment principal for the Curator of Ancient Art challenge grant.

The Mellon Foundation requests a resolution by VMFA’s Board of Trustees assigning and restricting the bridge funding to meet the matching requirements of The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. The resolution supports the request that funds be released by The Mellon Foundation to VMFA’s Foundation on behalf of VMFA.

BY RESOLUTION, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Board of Trustees assigns and restricts $210,000 in the form of bridge funding from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation to meet the matching requirements of The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation challenge grant.

BY RESOLUTION, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Board of Trustees assigns the remaining future pledge payments ($210,000) back to VMFA Foundation’s unrestricted endowment. Motion carried.
VII. COMMITTEE REPORTS

a. Fiscal Oversight Committee - Thurston R. Moore, Chairman

Mr. Moore said that at this morning’s meeting Robin Nicholson discussed the exhibitions for the next few years. Mr. Moore said the exhibitions require a couple of million dollars for start up and then membership and revenues should increase. He said that Carol Amato and Alex Nyerges are hoping the state will come through and pay their share of heating and lighting the new facility. Brian Haggard gave a report on maintenance reserve and capital outlays. Mr. Moore noted that we are fortunate to have that reserve.

b. Government Affairs Committee - Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Ms. Goode said the Government Affairs members received a one page paper of talking points for explaining our case for additional funding to the legislators. She said when talking with the legislators, trustees can point out that the Museum is helpful for economic development and the building is a state investment, an asset to the state. Ms. Goode said we will hear if we are in the Governor’s budget on December 17th when it is released and in the meantime she asked those present to please state our case to their legislators.

c. Statewide Task Force - Suzanne Mastracco, Chairman

Suzanne Mastracco said the Statewide Task Force Report was mailed to each trustee to review and it reflects an eighteen month journey by staff and trustees. She thanked Alex Nyerges, Pam Reynolds, Sandy Rusak, and Robin Nicholson who supported this statewide effort and the Task Force members who gave their time. Mr. Moore remarked that the data in the report is overwhelming and a lot of hard work went into it. The following motion was then proposed.

Motion: proposed by Ms. Goode and seconded by Mrs. Clement that the Full Board of Trustees approve the Statewide Task Force Report as distributed. Motion carried.

At 12:12 pm the meeting went into closed session for the Art Acquisitions Committee and the Museum Expansion Committee reports.

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Reynolds, seconded by Mr. Cherry that the meeting to go into closed session under Section 2.2-3711(A) (6), (8), (9) and (30) of the Freedom of Information Act to discuss the investing of public funds where competition or bargaining is involved, where, if made public initially, the financial interest of the Museum would be adversely affected, and to discuss and consider matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and fundraising activities, and grants and contracts for services to be performed, and for discussion of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants, and for discussion of the terms and scope of the contracts for the expansion, sculpture garden and parking deck where discussion in an open session would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Museum. I. CALL TO ORDER

The President, Pamela Reynolds, called the meeting to order at 12:15 pm and welcomed everyone. She thanked Alex Nyerges, Cathy Turner, Suzanne Broyles and Candy Banks for making it possible for the Board to meet in the Mellon Galleries today. She asked trustees to make a note of the meeting dates in their folders as the May meetings have been changed to Monday, May 19th and Tuesday, May 20th. The Trustee/Former Trustee Dinner will be held on the evening of May 19th at 6:30 pm.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mr. Carney, seconded by Mr. Adams that the Minutes of the last meeting of the Full Board of Trustees held on the 15th of November 2007 be approved as distributed on the 16th of January 2008. Motion carried.

III. REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT - Pamela Reynolds

President Reynolds said this is an important day as we have the responsibility of all the Trustees who have gone before us as we make our decision about the Top Ten Fund. Rather than waiting to approve the Top Ten Fund at the February 26th joint meeting of the Foundation Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees, we will bring the matter before this board today. She thanked Alex Nyerges, Thurston Moore, chairman of the Fiscal Oversight Committee, and Richard Tilghman who worked on getting the numbers right for the Top Ten Fund. She also thanked Hobie Claiborne III, the Foundation Investment Committee, Pete Wagner, Carol Amato and everyone who brought us to this moment.

IV. REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR - Alex Nyerges

The Director reported on the Statewide Task Force for its Chairman, Suzanne Mastracco, who could not be here with us today. He noted that Sandy Rusak has been working very hard. The Task Force met yesterday and reported that the Speed opening at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center in Newport News was a big success. Approximately 2,500 visitors attended which he said was phenomenal. So far, eight community meetings have taken place in the following statewide locations Winchester, Staunton, Virginia Beach, Norfolk, Roanoke, McLean, Farmville and Martinsville. Three more are planned for Charlottesville, the Northern Neck, and Far Southwest Virginia. The next step for the Task Force is to write the recommendations report which will then be presented to the Full Board.

Alex Nyerges reported that the Museum is in the midst of its year-long self study in preparation for the AAM reaccreditation. He noted that he has served as a senior member of accreditation teams for many years and he does not expect any hiccups with VMFA’s reaccreditation. He announced that we will take the Fellowship winners to the Virginia Capitol next Tuesday to meet and have photos with their legislators and then return to the Museum for lunch. The Director said this shows the legislators more of VMFA’s involvement throughout the state at a time when the conferees are working to prepare the state budget.

V. REPORT OF THE CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER - Carol Amato

Carol Amato reminded the board that the Governor asked for reductions of five percent from some other agencies while ours was reduced by four percent, or $363,735. She said that on Sunday the House and Senate released their budget plans which included additional reductions that corresponded to the Governor’s revised budget for the FY 08-10 biennium that reduced the museum’s budget by $147,000 each year. The Senate’s budget contained a reversion from the 2008 fiscal year of funds that had previously been authorized by the Department of Planning and Budget to be carried over from 2007. Steps are being taken to get those funds restored. The state budget will now go to conference and we will know more later. Ms. Amato announced that this morning the Fiscal Oversight Committee approved the revised budget with the reductions included. Ms. Amato explained that the Virginia Department of Mines, Minerals and Energy allows state agencies to participate in an energy audit with a consultant to continue to improve energy efficiency and VMFA has asked to be one of the first agencies involved in this audit.
VI. REPORT OF THE FOUNDATION

Pete Wagner announced that he has a good development report today. He said that as of February 4th, we had raised $780,000 for the 2007-2008 VMFA Fund. This is $80,000 more than last year at this time which is approximately an eleven percent increase. He listed new Founders and Fabergé members: Patsy Pettus, Mr. and Mrs. James Belk, John Staelin and Elizabeth Locke, and Mr. and Mrs. David Beran. Mr. Wagner said we have received several notable major gifts since the board met in November.

Foundation gifts include:

- $20,000 from the Weedon Foundation to conserve two Japanese sculptures to be reinstalled in the new East Asian Galleries
- $68,000 from the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation for the 2008-2009 VMFA Fellowship Program
- Grants totaling $25,000 from the Camp-Younts Foundation, the Camp Foundation, and the Ruth Camp Campbell Foundation
- The McConnell Foundation has given $10,000 for Art on the Air
- The Vilcek Foundation has given $30,000 for Contemporary Art Acquisitions

From our corporate friends we have received:

- $30,000 from SunTrust to sponsor our Canvas group for three years thanks to the good efforts of Freddie Gray
- $250,000 from Philip Morris for our opening events in the fall of next year.

He then thanked Tina Walls.

Mr. Wagner said individuals who have contributed major gifts to the Museum recently, include John Curtis, Peter Hunt, and Tina Walls who have all made generous contributions towards matching the NEH/Library challenge grant.

He noted that we received a $100,000 cash contribution from an anonymous donor towards equipping the Theatre. Yesterday, Mike Schewel, a new member of the Foundation’s Board, made a $100,000 pledge to the Top Ten Fund. And last, but certainly not least in the gifts department, as many of you know, in December we received a pledge of $1 million from Gina Rawles to name the Indian Art galleries in the new wing.

Mr. Wagner noted the campaign plan was sent to all of our Trustees and Foundation members in preparation for the board meetings this week and the joint meeting of both boards next Tuesday. The plan is still very much a work in progress so your comments and suggestions are certainly welcome. Mr. Wagner thanked the donors and said we are up in Annual Giving which is a good sign. He thanked the Trustees who continue to support Annual Giving.

David Bradley reported the Foundation had its first meeting of the calendar year on February 7th and welcomed the new leadership team of President Herbert A. Claiborne III and Vice-President Charlotte M. Minor. One action taken was to retain new auditors Goodman & Co. President Claiborne added that the Investment Committee met the other day to discuss the campaign and said it was good to have the Trustees and Foundation Directors working together.

VII. COMMITTEE REPORTS

a. Government Affairs Committee - Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode reported that the General Assembly is now in the Conference Committee meetings and she thanked the Museum staff and Trustees for working with the Governor’s staff which paid off greatly when we were given what was included in the Governor’s introduced budget especially when compared to other agencies. David Bradley said the state budget is complex and full of details over and above the proposed appropriations. He said that on Sunday the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees adopted differing budget plans which will be taken up by the respective bodies. The next step is for the conferees to work out the differences so that a compromise budget can be voted on by the full General Assembly. Mr. Bradley noted that there are vast differences between the House and the Senate and our circumstances might change, but it is too soon to tell.

b. Artistic Oversight Committee - Mrs. Whitt W. Clement, Chairman

Mrs. Clement said that at yesterday’s Artistic Oversight Committee meeting Suzanne Hall reported that the ad campaign for the Impressionist Landscapes exhibition includes cell phone guides, podcasts, ads and window displays at local malls, cocktail napkins at city restaurants, and TV spots on NBC and PBS. She said the tagline for the show is “Meet me at the Monet.” Mrs. Clement noted that over 10,000 people attended the Boudin exhibition and 2,500 attended the Speed opening at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center.

Mrs. Clement called on Robin Nicholson for an update on the Exhibition Portfolio distributed at the last board meeting. Mr. Nicholson showed a PowerPoint presentation of the first twelve months of the portfolio. He announced that since the November meeting, two exhibitions had been added to the portfolio. The first is an exhibition of Civil War drawings from Boston College to commemorate the Civil War sesquicentennial in 2011. The second is a small exhibition of art pottery being organized by Barry Shifman. Mr. Nicholson said there have been no other significant changes other than a few minor date alterations and asked for any questions.

Mrs. Clement announced that the Artistic Oversight Committee did approve the Exhibition Portfolio at yesterday’s meeting and recommended approval by the Full Board. The following motion was proposed.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Douglass, seconded by Mrs. White that the Full Board approve the Exhibition Portfolio as presented by Mr. Nicholson and recommended by the Artistic Oversight Committee. Motion carried.

At 1:10 pm the meeting went into closed session for the Fiscal Oversight Committee, the Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee and the Museum Expansion Committee reports.
Motion: proposed by Mr. Curtis, seconded by Mr. Cherry that the meeting to go into closed session under Section 2.2-3711(A) (6), (8), (9) and (30) of the Freedom of Information Act to discuss the investing of public funds where competition or bargaining is involved, where, if made public initially, the financial interest of the Museum would be adversely affected, and to discuss and consider matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and fundraising activities, and grants and contracts for services to be performed, and
for discussion of matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and grants, and for discussion of the terms and scope of the contracts for the expansion, sculpture garden and parking deck where discussion in an open session would adversely affect the bargaining position or negotiating strategy of the Museum.
Motion carried.

At 1:40 pm by motion proposed, seconded, and carried, the meeting resumed in open session.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Curtis, seconded by Mr. Adams, that the Board certify that the closed session just held was conducted in compliance with Virginia State law, as set forth in the Certification Resolution distributed and appended to these minutes. Motion carried.

A roll call vote was taken by the Secretary, the results of which are outlined in the Certification Resolution.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Curtis and seconded by Mr. Cherry that the Board ratify the recommendation the Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee made in yesterday’s meeting to accept the following purchase considerations:

Glasgow Wing. Motion carried.

VIII. ART MOMENT – Alex Nyerges

The Director asked the board if they could remember their first art experience and if it was here at VMFA, at another museum, in a magazine or a television program. Mr. Nyerges went on to share his first art experience which happened when he was four or five years old. He said his Mother gave him a book with stamps depicting works of art from the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and told him to match the pictures with the text description. He noted that these books changed his life by introducing him to a world he may never have known in his life. The Director asked the Full Board to think about their first introduction to the world of art and how it affected their lives.
Mr. Nyerges concluded by asking the Board what we can do to help people have their first art moment. Mr. Adams replied that we should recreate that book and Mrs. Knox added that the public should also contribute to the book. Mr. Nyerges agreed that these were good ideas.

IX. OTHER BUSINESS/ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business brought before the board, President Reynolds adjourned the meeting at 1:50 pm.

Ms. Amato thanked everyone for the amazing year as it has been her most exciting year in state government due to the many achievements. She thanked the group for their guidance, advice, patience and generosity.
VI. REPORTS

a. Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation - Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

Mr. Claiborne reported that as of March 31, 2008, the Foundation held restricted and unrestricted assets totaling $251 million. He noted that the Foundation expects to pay out $23.4 million for Museum operating and Expansion costs. He said KPMG provided an audit without qualification for 2006-2007 and the Foundation Board has selected Goodman & Co. to perform these services in the coming year. Mr. Claiborne reported raising $1,579,829 for annual giving and special projects. Full report is appended to these minutes.

Mr. Claiborne said the Foundation Board along with the Board of Trustees approved the $60 million Top Ten Campaign which has raised almost $5 million in support to date. He brought the Board's attention to the resolution in their folders. He said the Mellon Foundation is asking the VMFA Board of Trustees to adopt this resolution and he indicated that the VMFA Foundation Board adopted it in February. The resolution will assign and restrict the gifts to meet the matching requirements of the grant to establish a permanent endowment for the Ancient Art Curator position. The resolution supports the request that funds be released to VMFA's Foundation on behalf of VMFA. The following motion was proposed.

Motion: proposed by Dr. Schexnider and seconded by Ms. Walls that the following resolution be adopted by the VMFA Full Board of Trustees.

As of May 19, 2008, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation had received $650,000 in gifts designated by the donor(s) to match the $1,000,000 challenge grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to endow the position of Curator of Ancient Art:

- $500,000 from the Moses D. Nunnally Charitable Lead Trust (payments on a $500,000 pledge)
- $150,000 from Drs. William J. and Mary Ann S. Frable (payment on a $500,000 pledge)

BY RESOLUTION, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Board of Trustees assigns these gifts--funds received and funds pledged--to meet the matching requirements of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation challenge grant and restricts the income on the gifts to the uses set forth above.

The motion was carried unanimously.

Please read the annual report of the VMFA Foundation appended to these minutes as Attachment II.

b. Artistic Oversight Committee - Mrs. Whitt W. Clement, Chairman

Mrs. Clement reported on changes to the Exhibition Portfolio including Passion for Flowers which has been moved to the Spring of 2011 as VMFA has become a co-organizer for the exhibition and this will allow greater time to negotiate critical loans. This makes the Louis Comfort Tiffany exhibition the inaugural banner exhibition in May 2010. Sandy Rusak summarized the progress of the Statewide Task Force and noted the transfer of the management of statewide exhibitions to the exhibitions division.

Meg Clement stated that Robin Nicholson reported yesterday that the Spotlight Loan program will maintain momentum while we prepare for the expansion and will include a major painting by Jasper Johns and a prominent work by Degas. Mr. Nicholson gave a brief overview of the new Exhibitions Guidelines document for the Artistic Oversight Committee to review before approving in the September meeting. Please see the annual report for the Artistic Oversight Committee appended to these minutes as Attachment III.

c. Fiscal Oversight Committee – Thurston R. Moore, Chairman

Thurston Moore reported that in yesterday’s meeting it was announced that Food Services has produced a profit and he commended Cathy Turner for booking many weddings and other events to accomplish this success. He noted that the Governor asked for reductions of the budget of 1.5% from all the state agencies and those submittals are due June 1. Mr. Moore reported the good news that the General Assembly allowed us to carry forward maintenance reserve funds and use up to 20% in the new fiscal year for the conservation of art. He said that staff is in the process of reviewing the many change orders for the expansion. Mr. Moore stated that the Shop managers reported on the progress of their part of the Business Plan in yesterday’s meeting. He said things are in great shape due to Carol Amato’s hard work. Ms. Amato noted that two people have been added to the staff to work with Richard Woodward and Brian Haggard. Frank Gee, a retired engineer with experience with Federal projects will work on our Federal project and Al Corbett worked at Dominion Virginia Power in Procurement and will help with our capital projects. A search is on now for a business manager to guide all the projects and keep the McGlothlin Wing on schedule. Please see the annual report of the Fiscal Oversight Committee appended to these minutes as Attachment IV.

d. Government Affairs Committee – Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode remarked that we had a very successful year and thanked the staff and trustees for all of their hard work. Due to the action plan, we secured funding for the expansion start up costs and capital outlay projects. The current level of funding for the city service charge and private funds “lockbox” were reauthorized. We entertained members of the General Assembly and Administration officials and we increased publicity about our Statewide activities which was a crucial piece per Ms. Goode. She also noted that our Fellowship award winners received special recognition at the General Assembly this year. Mrs. Goode explained that we got in to the General Assembly members early and got out before things became frantic so we did not have to compete with other messages and we made certain we were not too over exposed. Please see the annual report of the Government Affairs Committee appended to these minutes as Attachment V.
e. Statewide Task Force - Mrs. Suzanne T. Mastracco, Chairman

Mrs. Mastracco gave special thanks to Past President Charlotte Minor who started the statewide initiative and passed it on to Pam Reynolds. Ms. Mastracco remarked that our statewide outreach is very important to everything that happens at the Museum. Division Heads have held two retreats to determine the best statewide outreach plan and each employee work profile now lists how the position contributes to statewide issues. Mrs. Mastracco asked the group to look at the sheet in their packets listing the many visits to partners, potential partners, universities, colleges, schools and assisted living homes, throughout the state. Each location shared what they think of us and how we can make our programs better. Staff is incorporating the changes suggested by the Partners as we go along. For instance a lively brochure was created with attached application, and staff is making a conversion to lighter weight shipping crates to save schools’ shipping costs. Most recently our Director and others traveled to Charlottesville for the opening of Speed at UVA. Tomorrow they go to the Eastern Shore and after one more trip, the state will have been covered. Mrs. Mastracco reported that we will work through the summer to collect our Task Force findings and recommendations and bring you our report in September. Please see the annual report of the Statewide Task Force appended to these minutes as Attachment VI.

f. Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee, John R. Curtis, Jr., Chairman

The Art Acquisitions Sub-Committee annual report is appended to these minutes as Attachment VII.

g. Museum Expansion Committee, Dr. Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr. Chairman

The Museum Expansion Committee annual report is appended to these minutes as Attachment VIII.

She noted that it was appropriate to meet in the Lewis and Paul Mellon Galleries today as they started us on the journey we travel today. Mrs. Reynolds said we as the VMFA Family dream no small dreams as we see in our five amazing new trustees. She introduced: Tom Farrell, who could not be with us today, Cynthia Fralin of Roanoke, John Luke, Jim McGlothlin, and Michael Schewel. She then welcomed the three new ex-officio members, John Shannon, President of the Friends of Art, Melissa Canaday, Chairman of the Multicultural Advisory Council, and Douglas D’Urso, the first male Chairman of the Docent Committee.

IV. REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR – Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges introduced staff member, Alexis Vaughn, our new Deputy Director for Sales and Marketing. He told the group that Ms. Vaughn was the former Chief Operating Officer of the North Carolina Museum of Art and has worked for Citicorp and the Peace Corps. The Director noted that the Sales and Marketing Department has taken on portions of various departments such as Publications and Food Service and Special Events.

Mr. Nyerges said our Strategic Planning has begun. The Strategic Planning Committee is comprised of the Executive Committees of the Board of Trustees and the Foundation Board and other friends of the museum. He indicated that all Trustees will be involved and will receive reports from the Committee. The process will take twelve months and will plan for the next five to ten years. The Statewide Task Force held their last meeting yesterday. They are working on their final report which will be presented to the Full Board in November.

V. REPORT OF THE CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER - Carol Amato

Carol Amato reported that the Governor’s Chief of Staff has asked agencies to plan for budget reductions of 5%, 10%, and 15%. Ms. Amato said that 5% of our budget would be $500,000 out of the general funds, 10% would be $1 million and 15% would be $1.5 million. She explained that the Governor will use the submitted figures to recast the FY09 budget and submit it to the General Assembly in September. He will then work with his economic advisor to forecast revenues for this and next year. We are working on our reductions by divisions and after submission we will give the Board a summary. Ms. Amato noted that these reductions are not good news, but not unexpected.

Carol Amato said the final report from the auditors came with a bulletin to State agencies saying that the focus of future audits will change to put more emphasis on how agencies manage risk and the auditors will want to meet with the Trustees about two times per year. Ms. Amato reported that in the auditor’s review of VMFA he felt we were too small an agency to have three people authorized for full access to the accounting system. We have complied with the auditor’s recommendations for staff access and authority related to the accounting system. The other finding was that we, along with many other state agencies, were not in full compliance with Homeland Security’s procedures to deal with non-citizens on staff. A training course has been held to assure that the Personnel Department complies with all requirements. Nothing was found wrong with our accounting.

VI. REPORT OF THE FOUNDATION – Herbert A. Claiborne III, President

President Claiborne said that Annual Giving leadership recruitment is underway. He indicated that this is a vital part of the Museum’s unrestricted revenue stream and that if those present are asked to serve and when asked to give, he hopes they will enthusiastically respond to both opportunities. He then announced that Jordan and Tom Saunders have made a $500,000 payment towards their $1 million pledge.
Mr. Claiborne explained that in order to receive matching funds from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, a Board resolution is required stating that the funds raised will be restricted for the purpose of establishing a permanent endowment for the Curator of Ancient Art. The following motion was then proposed.

Motion: proposed by Dr. Fisher and seconded by Dr. Harris that the following resolution be adopted by the VMFA Full Board of Trustees.

As of June 30, 2008, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts has received $190,210 in additional gifts designated by the donor(s) to match the $1,000,000 challenge grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation to endow the position of Curator of Ancient Art. The payment was received from Drs. William J. and Mary Ann S. Frable (toward a $500,000 pledge; $209,790 remaining).

BY RESOLUTION, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Board of Trustees assigns these gifts—funds received and funds pledged—to meet the matching requirement of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation challenge grant and restricts the income on the gifts to the uses set forth above. Motion carried.

President Claiborne went on to say that the Foundation, through the Virginia Small Business Financing Authority, has executed a $20 million tax exempt bond issue to benefit the Expansion project. In July the Foundation adopted its first $10 million budget. Eighty percent of those funds are transferred to the Museum for operating purposes and the remaining 20% is to operate the Foundation and the development office, maintain real estate, and a few expenditures made directly on behalf of the Museum. Not reflected are art purchases and construction fees for the Expansion. These expenditures are made upon specific requests from this Board of Trustees.

Mr. Claiborne announced that Charity Navigator, a leading charity evaluator in America, has granted the Foundation a 4-star rating for sound fiscal management for the second year in a row. Their award letter stated: “Only 17% of the charities we’ve rated have received at least two consecutive 4-star evaluations, indicating that Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation consistently executes its mission in a fiscally responsible way, and outperforms most other charities in America. This exceptional designation from Charity Navigator differentiates Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Foundation from its peers and demonstrates to the public it is worthy of their trust.”

VII. NEW COMMITTEES – Pamela Reynolds, President

President Reynolds announced that she has created some new committees so that we can be the best we can be when the new wing opens. Therefore the Artistic Oversight Committee is now the Artistic Committee, the Art Acquisitions Committee is now a full stand alone committee instead of a sub-committee and an Education Committee has been created. She called on Thurston Moore who told of the new Organizational Excellence Task Force which will bring together people experienced in management and public administration to look at the ways we operate this institution and report back to the Strategic Planning Committee. Barbara-lyn Morris from the Board of Trustees and Ranjit Sen from the VMFA Foundation Board have been named co-chairmen of the Advancement Committee and Mrs. Morris explained that this committee is just getting started and has a wonderful new list of people to call on.

Alex Nyerges explained that the Statewide Task Force has done such a great job it has been made into a full permanent Education and Statewide Partnerships Committee to look at our education programs for 2010 and beyond. He thanked Chairman Suzanne Mastracco and staff liaison, Sandy Rusak for their hard work. Mr. Nyerges said we have programs all across Virginia as you will see at the November Full Board meeting when the Statewide Task Force presents their report.

VIII. COMMITTEE REPORTS

a. Artistic Committee – Mrs. Whitt W. Clement, Chairman

Meg Clement reported that at yesterday’s Artistic Committee Robin Nicholson gave a brief report on the recently developed Guidelines for Exhibitions which the Committee voted to approve and recommend for Board approval.

Motion: proposed by Dr. Harris and seconded by Mrs. Lewis that the Full Board ratify the recommendation of the Artistic Committee to approve the Exhibition Guidelines as presented by Mr. Nicholson. Motion carried.

Yesterday Mr. Nicholson also reported on the newest VMFA collaboration with Richmond International Airport (RIA). VMFA and the RIA will be working together to create special displays of art at strategic locations in the airport. The costs of this endeavor will be borne by the airport. VMFA staff are working to find suitable content and finding ways to ensure security and environmental controls and conditions. The first of these displays should be open by the end of 2008. Richard Woodward shared with the committee the progress on the expansion and installation of art in the new wing and existing galleries. John Ravenal reported on plans for the new sculpture garden and highlighted some artists currently being considered for possible commissions, acquisitions and bequests. The meeting closed with an art moment by our curator of East Asian Art, Li Jian.

b. Fiscal Oversight Committee – Thurston R. Moore, Chairman

Thurston Moore referred to the Financial Summary for the twelve months ended June 30, 2008 in the Board folders and noted that we are $1.5 million under budget. He said that the earned revenues for Admissions, Memberships and Food Services show what drives this organization forward. Mr. Moore reminded the Board that our active high profile exhibitions plan validates our business plan. At this morning’s Fiscal Oversight meeting Anne Kenny-Urban, Assistant head of Risk Management, gave a very good report on VMFA’s Risk Management. Ms. Kenny-Urban has coordinated with the Department of Accounts. Their thorough report shows what a great job our employees do in risk management. Mr. Moore remarked that we are lucky to have the staff that we do as they produce so much with such constrained resources.
c. Government Affairs Committee – Susan S. Goode, Chairman

Susan Goode remarked that yesterday’s meeting included a talk by Tony Maggio, Higher Education and Capital Outlay Analyst, about budgeting process and capital outlay planning. Ms. Goode said we know our budget will be cut, but not how much. She said that until the October revenue projection we have no idea of the size of the state budget. We have been asked to submit cuts of 5, 10 and 15 percent by next Friday. She stated that the State is in a difficult position because of the sizable number of general fund agencies such as corrections, police, and mental health who must maintain a high level of service, but do not have the option of generating revenues or contributions. Ms. Goode said we hope that by laying out our case with the administration and legislators last year, we will not be cut at the higher levels. When we know our budget reduction percentage, we will look at our next actions.

IX. TOP TEN FUND – John A. Luke, Jr., Co-Chairman

Pam Reynolds called on new trustee, John Luke to say a few words about the Top Ten Fund. Mr. Luke has agreed to serve as Co-Chairman of the campaign and stated that he was very honored to serve with all of the other trustees. He said he is excited about what he’s learned about this truly great institution he called a special place worthy of Top Ten status. Mr. Luke indicated he was impressed with the staff leadership including Pete Wagner and Alex Nyerges. He thanked all the committed people for the support they have provided to VMFA and said we are all going forward in these challenging times. He felt that with the Top Ten Fund we will hopefully pull ourselves away from dependency on future state budgets. He thanked everyone for their strong support.

President Reynolds thanked Mr. Luke and said a campaign like this always starts with family such as Dorothy Pauley, Louise Cochrane, Frances Lewis and Jim McGlothlin present here today. She announced that a $2 million gift from an anonymous donor will come in the next few months and then announced that Susan and David Goode have just given $2.5 million to the campaign. Following a round of applause, Susan Goode addressed the group saying that this is a great institution that has come a long way. She added that there are wonderful things happening statewide and with the fabulous new wing opening next year, she wanted to help make it all happen. Mrs. Goode said she hopes a lot of those present today will join her in support of the campaign.

Trustee Tina Walls took the floor and said in keeping with the excitement of the expansion and because this institution makes an impact on the community and the state, Altria has decided to increase its pledge by $1.4 million which takes its commitment to a total of $2 million for the Top Ten Fund. This news was greeted with a round of applause.

X. ART MOMENT – Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges told the trustees that he is starting a series of art moments to introduce trustees to new and different works from our encyclopedic permanent collection. He pointed out that our Pre-Columbian and Native American art will have its own dedicated gallery for the first time in the new wing. Curator Lee Anne Hurt could not be with us today but is very excited about this opportunity to showcase art that is so important to the history of North America. Mr. Nyerges then proceeded to show slides highlighting many of the fabulous works in this collection.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed and seconded that the minutes of the last meeting of the Fiscal Oversight Committee held on the 17th of September 2008 and the last meeting of the Government Affairs Committee held on the 16th of September be approved as distributed on the 18th of November 2008. Motion carried.

III. REVIEW OF OPERATING BUDGET PROPOSALS SUBMITTED TO THE COMMONWEALTH FOR FY 2010 - Carol Amato

Carol Amato reported that this year agencies were allowed to submit budget proposals for FY10 by invitation only. VMFA was invited to submit a request, and it did so by asking for $2 million that is necessary to open and operate the expanded museum. Of the $2 million, $1 million is earmarked for energy and utilities costs which are increasing tremendously; the remaining $1 million is for personnel to serve the public, security costs and B&G staff to care for the new building. The state has options of giving us no more budget cuts in FY10 and giving us $386,000, or cutting our budget by 10% and giving us $1.6 million or giving us the full cut and then we would need $2 million. The increase in energy costs is nearly a million dollars for electricity and natural gas. The final word is that there is no guarantee that we would get the additional funding and that there may be additional reductions.

The Governor’s budget will be announced on December 17. The General Assembly can then make additional cuts or eliminate/reduce cuts when they meet in January and February. It has been suggested that state revenues could be down by up to $4 billion and that those who were not affected by the cuts at this time will face cuts in the 2010 budget.

This is why it is so important for VMFA’s Trustees to visit members of the General Assembly to stress the need for sufficient funds to open and operate the expansion. Those visits will be scheduled before the session begins.

Ms. Amato explained that VMFA needs a plan of action to be prepared for whatever decisions are made by the Governor and General Assembly on our budget. She indicated that staff groups will be discussing:

- Energy and utilities – how we decrease our energy use; the conservators and the librarians would be particularly critical to this discussion
- Staffing and cross-training – how can staff help with other than their assigned responsibilities
- Strategic Plan for Technology – using a cross section of staff, discuss priorities for information technology
- Museum priorities – assess priorities for exhibitions, programs, publications and public offerings

Ms. Amato further explained that Foundation support has usually helped out when budget cuts affected our operations. Unfortunately, the economic downturn has adversely affected the Foundation’s investments and VMFA needs to be extremely conservative so that the Foundation doesn’t have to sell investments when their value is low.
Alex Nyerges commented that VMFA is fortunate to have enthusiastic and dedicated supporters - Trustees, Staff, and Partner organizations - who can be helpful in influencing the Governor and the General Assembly with regard to funding.

Ms. Amato briefly reviewed the budget summary saying we were within the budget for the first quarter. She said that after we incorporate the budget reductions of 15%, the revenue will be reduced by a little over $1.3 million. She said the FY 2011 reserve is gone unless we are able to rebuild it. All departments have taken steps to reduce costs and increase earned revenue, however there are no ticketed exhibitions this year so revenue will continue to decline. Food Service/ Special Events had an increase in revenues last year but will not this year as many holiday parties have been cancelled due to the economy.

IV. OVERVIEW OF PROPOSED EXHIBITION PORTFOLIO AND BUDGET

Robin Nicholson

Robin Nicholson, Deputy Director of Exhibitions, reported on the list of exhibitions currently under development for FY 2010-2012. He reviewed the following exhibitions showing some slides. Banner exhibitions are in bold print.

Tiffany: Master of Glass
Darkroom: Photography and New Media in South Africa

A Passion for Flowers: Painting in France from Courbet to Monet
Sally Mann: New Work

Maharaja: the Splendor of India’s Royal Courts

Dynasty and Divinity: Life in Ancient Nigeria
Drawings of the Civil War: The Becker Collection

Aphrodite: Art and Love in the Ancient World
Zu Bing: Tobacco Project
Art Nouveau Jewelry

Mummy: the inside story

Elvis at 21

Water and Shadow: Kawase Hasui and the Japanese Landscape

American Quilts from Winterthur

Mr. Nicholson then reviewed the budget summary document distributed. He noted that the principal sources of revenue are restricted exhibition endowments, the accumulated JLR Endowment, state appropriations, gifts/ sponsorships/ grants, and earned revenue pool. Mr. Nicholson said some expenses of VMFA-organized exhibitions can be offset by participation fees from other venues. He noted that shipping and courier costs are the highest costs in exhibition budgets and add significantly to the cost of hosting major exhibitions. Other major costs are marketing, statewide travel, security, design production, and publications. He reviewed the projected expenses and shortfalls for each year. To address the shortfall he suggested a number of sources of additional revenue: corporate support, using other restricted endowments that could be used for exhibitions, and applying for gifts and grants. Mr. Nicholson also said that in the current economic environment we should look at the way we do things, try to reduce individual exhibition costs by reducing lavish openings, maybe cancel or reschedule some exhibitions, and hold fewer scholarly exhibitions that don’t bring in significant crowds.

Thurston Moore reminded those present that exhibitions give us revenues from the gift shop, food service, etc. and we should think about the balance between banner exhibitions and scholarly exhibitions. He thanked Mr. Nicholson for his presentation.

V. STATUS OF MAINTENANCE RESERVE PROJECTS AND FUNDS
   - Brian Haggard and Carol Amato

Carol Amato noted that we have been so focused on other capital projects but things have changed and last year’s General Assembly authorized the use of 20% of last year’s balance for us to conserve the collection and for capital projects. Brian Haggard referred the group to the Maintenance Reserve Funding and Work Plan document distributed that shows a year end balance and carry forward, June 2008, of $1,167,668. He said the FY09 and FY10 appropriations added to the carry forward totaled almost $3 million. Mr. Haggard reviewed the Work Plan which showed Conservation Allotment and Buildings Allotment projects in priority order. He answered questions from the group.

VI. GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS ACTION PLAN – Susan S. Goode, Government Affairs Committee Chair

Ms Goode asked those present to look at the one-page sheet showing the script to be used during legislative visits. Members discussed possible ways to reduce our expenses. Carol Amato assured the group that every idea has been explored. Susan Goode remarked that no matter how discouraging times seem, please use these talking points to lobby and stress the Museum’s needs. She said if we don’t, it is not going to happen. Meg Clement suggested adding something to the script about statewide programs that happen in the Legislators’ own districts. The group discussed other ideas.

The Chairman, Thurston R. Moore, called the meeting to order at 9:00 am.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Grant Griswold and seconded by Birch Douglass that the minutes of the last meeting of the Fiscal Oversight Committee held on November 15, 2007 be approved as distributed on January 16, 2008. Motion carried.

III. ACTION ITEMS

Director’s Remarks

Mr. Nyerges commented that most of the discussion for the day would be on finances. He then proceeded to outline what the expansion offered the museum and why it was so important to position the museum to open and fully operate the new facility.

Budget Update

Ms. Amato reviewed the revised budget for fiscal year 2008. She explained that the State had reduced the VMFA budget by 4% or $360,000 in FY 2008 which we were able to manage by scheduling the filling of vacancies; reducing expenses for security; and achieving other efficiencies. An additional reduction was announced for state agencies, but the Governor did not require an additional reduction at VMFA. The General Assembly has included a reduction in funding for VMFA in one version of the budget. If that one-time reduction is confirmed, VMFA should be able to manage it by keeping some positions vacant.

She asked for approval of the Fiscal Oversight Committee for the Revised FY2008 budget.

Motion: Proposed by James Cherry and seconded by John Curtis that the Revised Budget for FY2008 be approved. Motion carried.
Ms. Amato then reviewed the financial summary for July – December of 2007. She commented that VMFA was within budget and expected to end the year the same way. Revenue has increased for several reasons. Ticket sales were good for Rule Britannia, and both Food Service/Special Events and the Museum Shop showed a profit. She called attention to Food Service/Special Events and commended Cathy Turner and her staff for the exceptional amount of work they did in December to bring them into a profitable status. The Museum Shop also achieved a small profit mainly related to the visitation increase during Rule Britannia.

The Chairman then announced that the meeting should go into closed session at 9:15 am.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Moore and seconded by Mr. Douglass that the meeting go into closed session under the Section 2.2-3711 (A) (8) of the Freedom of Information Act to discuss and consider matters relating to specific gifts, bequests, and fundraising activities, and grants and contracts for services to be performed. Motion carried.

At 10:30 am, by motion proposed, seconded and carried, the meeting resumed in open session.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Moore and seconded by Mr. Tattersall that the Committee certify that the closed session just held was conducted in compliance with Virginia State law, as set forth in the Certification Resolution distributed. Motion carried.

A roll call vote was taken, the results of which are outlined in the Certification Resolution.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Moore and seconded by Mr. Cherry that the goals, purposes and methods of the Top Ten Campaign be approved as outlined, and that the Museum staff and the Foundation staff be authorized to cooperatively plan for and implement the plan for the Top Ten Campaign as outlined, subject to further revisions. Motion carried.

Legislative Update

David Bradley commented that the House and Senate would adopt their respective budgets on this date, the budgets would be rejected by the opposite chamber, and a Conferee Committee will be appointed to resolve the differences. He explained that VMFA was in a good situation and better off than many agencies. The Governor and General Assembly have been very supportive of our requests.

IV. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, the Chairman adjourned the meeting at 10:30 am.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Thurston R. Moore, called the meeting to order at 9:00 am.

II. MINUTES

Motion: Proposed by Agustin Rodriguez and seconded by Alfonzo Carney that the minutes of the last meeting of the Fiscal Oversight Committee held on February 21, 2008 be approved as distributed on March 19, 2008. Motion carried.

III. ACTION ITEMS

Director’s Remarks

Mr. Nyerges commented that the Trustee/Former Trustee event held on the previous evening was very nice and commended Food Service/Special Events for their good work and delicious meal.

Presentations by Enterprises

Food Service and Special Events - Ms. Cathy Turner presented information on Food Service/Special Events current status and plans for the future. She made the following comments about the department’s current operation:

- Café located in the Marble Hall – is an amenity for visitors and operates at a loss
- Hard Hat Café – created to serve the staff and the construction workers
- Special Events – serves various groups, including individual and corporate patrons, members, associations, Foundation events and in-house events; Foundation and in-house events are billed on a cost basis; 340 events were held in 2006-07; wedding receptions and corporate events are the most profitable events at VMFA
- Department operated at a $14,000 loss last year (less than anticipated), but will end this year with a projected profit of $50,000

When the department begins operation in the expanded facility, it will operate two restaurants and a coffee bar – about a $2 million catering and sales operation. They will continue many of the events they now support and plan to develop new specialized events.
The VMFA’s Business Plan included projected revenue and expenses for Food Service/Special Events. Seating for the Café is 190 using inside and outside seating and for the restaurant approximately 170 people when all areas are utilized. Revenue will depend in large part on museum/exhibition visitation. It is projected that there will be about 240 external events (currently 60-70) and 268 internal events (currently 207).

Ms. Turner commented that income for November 2007 was $39,800 and was about right for an average month. December 2007 was a very busy month and income was $135,000 which enabled the department to achieve the projected profit for this fiscal year.

Ms. Turner explained that a Restaurant Task Force of Trustees had been formed and several staff were meeting with them to discuss the restaurants, furnishings, décor, and operation.

Ms. Amato added that this department will be moving to the Sales and Marketing Department when a Deputy Director for this area is hired. Group sales, the Museum Shop, and product development will also be part of Sales and Marketing. Sales and Marketing will have a direct relationship to the exhibitions program.

Ms. Amato also commented that the projected figures in Ms. Turner’s presentation had been closely reviewed by Bob Brais who assisted in development of our Business Plan. Mr. Brais wanted to be sure that VMFA did not overestimate our ability to earn revenue, so the figures in the Business Plan are probably a bit conservative.

Museum Shop and Product Development - Ms. Sara Johnson-Ward (VMFA Product Development) and Ms. Barbara Lenhardt (Museum Shop Manager) presented information on the Museum Shop and Product Development.

Ms. Lenhardt discussed the following:

- The museum and shop share equally in the cost of developing new products
- To date, 177 new items have been developed
- To date, $61,341 in licensing and royalties have been received
- VMFA has a relationship with:  the Metropolitan Museum; Emenee (hardware manufacturer with stores in 25 US and foreign locations and basing products on Faberge), KJK Jewelry, jewelry manufacturer; and Dermond Peterson, linen designer
- Some of the products include:  Fabergé eggs, Christmas cards, VMFA logo items, scarves, linens, note cards, jewelry, watches, and Time & Tide tableware.
- Only 10% of current products are based on the museum’s collection.  The goal for the future shop is 50%.

Ms. Johnson-Ward discussed the following:

- The museum’s Decorative Arts collection is a great resource for product development.
- She has contacted Joanne Lyman, who is now retired, to discuss contracting with her to develop a line of jewelry especially for the museum.
• VMFA would like to secure one or more furniture licenses and extend the ABC line into baby furniture.
• Additional press coverage would enhance the sale of VMFA products.
• Online and catalog sales are possible but not the best way to sell museum products. Even the Metropolitan Museum sells much more in their stores than they do via online and catalog sales.
• Product inventory is computerized and closely tracked. Storage has become a problem and off-site storage is being secured for VMFA products and books and for shop merchandise storage.
• Future goals include: dealing directly with manufacturers, increasing marketing and distribution; selling original art; and improving the website and marketing of the products.

Ms. Amato commented that Product Development was being managed by Ms. Lenhardt (a full-time employee) and Ms. Johnson-Ward (a part-time employee) and that they had done a wonderful job with the limited resources and budget available to them.

Operating Budget

Ms. Amato briefly reviewed the budget summary saying that VMFA will finish the Fiscal Year 2007-2008 within budget. Ms. Amato pointed out Admissions Revenues and emphasized how it showed the impact of exhibitions on visitation and revenues. She also commented that Food Service/Special Events had expected a loss but would be showing a profit at the end of the fiscal year.

Mr. Barbour commented that next year will be challenging with several positions being filled and the additional 1.5% cut in the operating budget announced by the Governor. The reductions that we make will be permanent.

Budget for 2008-2010

None of the proposed changes to the VMFA budget was implemented in the General Assembly, so the budget discussed at the last Trustee meeting remains the same.

Ms. Reynolds and a planning committee are talking with a consultant to assist VMFA to revise our current Strategic Plan and put one in place for 2010 – 2015.

Maintenance Reserve (MR) Funds

VMFA asked for funding to conserve art but staff of the General Assembly’s money committees suggested that we request permission to use part of our maintenance reserve funds for that purpose. This permission was written into the Appropriation Act so VMFA will be allowed to carry over all the MR funding (normally lost at the end of a fiscal year) amounting to approximately $1.3 million and use 20% of it ($260,000) for conservation of art. VMFA should receive approximately $1.5 million more in MR funding in 2008-09.
Some of the MR projects are:

- replacing the roof at 201 N. Boulevard
- replacing the roof at the Studio School (work is near completion)
- replacing the 1985 roof
- fixing the skylights in the 1936 wing
- replacing HVAC controls, small air handlers and several fire doors

Capital Projects

There are nine (9) capital projects that include the McGlothlin Wing, installation of a new security system, and installation of a fire suppression system. With so many projects to oversee, two people have been hired on a temporary basis to keep projects moving. Frank Gee is a former Virginia Department of Transportation employee who specializes in federal funding and roadways. He will handle the federal money we have received to install the ramps on the parking deck and the walkways. Al Corbett is a former Dominion Power project manager who will work with Mike Slatner and Brian Haggard on capital projects.

Ms. Amato explained that the Governor has frozen general funds for Capital projects through 2009. VMFA had a remaining allocation of almost $4.7 million of General funds for the new wing. We requested and were given permission to use funds from the General Obligation Bond to continue the project.

Status of Change Orders related to Expansion

Ms. Amato explained that two groups have been established to review change orders provided to VMFA by Whiting Turner. One group includes Mr. Nyerges and the VP at Whiting Turner; the other includes Whiting Turner project managers, URS project managers, and VMFA expansion managers. Change orders are being reviewed, discussed, and resolved one by one.

Capital Campaign

Mr. Bradley explained that Davenport is developing an RFP for bonds which will probably be issued sometime in August. Options for the debt service are being explored.

II. MINUTES

  Motion: Proposed by Birch Douglas and seconded by Mrs. Dorothy Pauley that the minutes of the last meeting of the Fiscal Oversight Committee held on May 20, 2008 be approved as distributed on July 29, 2008. Motion carried.

III. ACTION ITEMS

ARMICS

Risk Management is one of the many things that fall under the purview of the Board of Trustees – including such things as security, theft, safety of personnel and data, human resources, technology, financial integrity. The Auditor of Public Accounts, Walter Kucharski, has previously indicated that we perform well in comparison to other state agencies, and he will meet with the Fiscal Oversight Committee at the meeting in February.

In 2006 the Commonwealth of Virginia began an initiative on internal controls and managing risk known as Agency Risk Management and Internal Control Standards (ARMICS). This initiative is a strong component of maintaining Virginia’s position of one of the best managed states. VMFA created a position to address this initiative and Anne Kenny-Urban was selected. She has been working with museum staff for over a year to develop, test and report VMFA’s standards and status. The Auditor has announced that the ARMICS plan and our adherence to it will be seriously considered when VMFA is audited in the future. The Auditor will also spend more time with Boards that have fiduciary responsibility for agencies.

Ms. Kenny-Urban reviewed the ARMICS plan, the stages of development, the input of the staff, the ratings for the various categories, and the areas of concern identified by staff. If a Board member would like a copy of the power point presentation, it can be obtained by contacting Suzanne Broyles.

In response an inquiry as to what extent the Foundation has engaged in a similar exercise, David Bradley reported that they have been doing much the same thing with their auditors. The Foundation has upgraded its technologies so that new safeguards are built into the system. Meetings with employees of the Foundation have emphasized the need to be good stewards donations so that donors will continue to feel confident that their donations are being used properly and wisely.

Budget Reductions

The Governor’s Chief of Staff sent all agencies a letter describing the Commonwealth’s serious financial situation as a result of the inaccurate revenue projections. He asked that all state agencies prepare budget reduction plans of 5%, 10% and 15% and provide them to the Governor by September 26. The Governor, by law, is authorized to cut budgets only up to 15%. However, the General Assembly can follow by adding to or reducing the cuts. Therefore, VMFA will not know for 5-6 more months what the final budget cuts will be. This means that the budget cuts for FY09 will have to be taken in the last four months of the fiscal year. For this reason, VMFA is planning now to assure that funding is in place to achieve the final budget reduction.

Carol Amato made several points about the reductions:

- The reduction applies only to General Fund money which is only ½ of the VMFA budget.
- VMFA has to plan reductions while planning to open and operate an expanded museum.
- VMFA is fortunate to have various sources of funding. VMFA has the ability to generate income but the reduced size of the museum and its programs has seriously affected earned income.
- When the economy takes a downward turn, the Commonwealth suffers and reductions are made in agencies’ funding. When the economy rebounds, the state budget usually responds quickly, although it may take longer this time.
- The Foundation helps when state funds are cut, but the economy has adversely affected the Foundation’s income stream which will, in turn, affect what they can provide to VMFA.
- Energy is a major expense for the museum. The Building Supervisor has reviewed energy needs and costs for the next two years and consulted with outside experts to project an increase in energy costs of $250,000 in FY09 and about $1.2 in FY10 when the building is open. Fortunately, VMFA was given additional energy funding for the biennium, so some of that will be included in the budget reductions.
- Security is another major expense at the museum. VMFA was given additional funding to upgrade the electronic security system as the expansion comes on line. This money will not be affected. Having highly technical security in place may enable VMFA to reduce the cost of our current security contractor.
• In some cases, non-general funds can be reassigned to general-funded programs when general funds are cut. VMFA is fortunate to have good sources for non-general funds.
• At 10% and 15% budget reductions, VMFA staff will be affected and Division Heads and Managers have been notified. Staff chose to take furloughs during a previous budget cut, but the Governor is looking for permanent reductions rather than temporary ones. Furloughs are not acceptable this time.
• One option open to employees is to reduce their employment from 12 months to 9, 10 or 11 months. This would be a permanent change for any employee choosing this option.
• State protocol dictates that lay-offs are based on seniority.
• When a reduction in personnel is considered, contracts are considered first, part-time staff are considered second, and full-time staff are the last to be considered.
• Personnel layoffs at VMFA will also be considered based on retaining positions required to open the expansion, protect the art, and continue SOL-based programs. Retaining positions that affect every department within the museum and could compromise museum operations if eliminated will also be considered.
• The Workforce Transition Act requires that laid off employees be provided with a severance package. With numerous long-serving employees at VMFA, this could create sizeable payouts. These employees would also be entitled to unemployment insurance which must be paid by the agency and could also create sizeable long-term distributions. The costs for both severance and unemployment insurance must be considered in our budget planning.
• VMFA has a $900,000 reserve and $200,000 of it will be used each year to reduce the budget reductions that the departments must take. $500,000 will be retained as long as possible for opening the new wing.
• Because the state’s revenue projects have not been accurate for the past few years, Ms. Amato believes the state will be very conservative with their new revenue projections. These projections and the condition of the economy will significantly impact the final level of budget reductions.

Alex Nyerges commented that VMFA is fortunate to have enthusiastic and dedicated supporters – Trustees, Staff, and Partner organizations – who can be helpful in influencing the Governor and the General Assembly with regard to funding.

Operating Budget

Ms. Amato briefly reviewed the budget summary. The increase in revenue from Admissions and Food Service/Special Events was noted and credited in large part to the exhibitions held last year.
Bond Issue

Hugh Ewing, chairman of the Foundation’s Investment Committee, reported that an additional $20 million of tax exempt variable rate bonds had been issued through the Virginia Small Business Financing Authority. Wachovia is the underwriter, Davenport was the bond advisor, and Hunton & Williams served as bond counsel. This brings the total debt load to $50 million. The bonds, an obligation of the Foundation rather than the Commonwealth, will be repaid using receipts on pledges.

Next Trustee Meeting

Trustees were reminded that the November 19 and 20 meetings will be held in Roanoke. Non-Trustee committee members and Ex-Officio members are welcome to attend but are not required to do so. More details on the travel plans and meetings will be forthcoming.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Susan Goode, at 3:13 pm. She welcomed new trustee, Alfonso L. Carney, Jr. to the Committee.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed and seconded that the minutes of the last meeting of the Government Affairs Committee held on the 14th of November 2007 be approved as distributed on the 25th of January 2008. Motion carried.

III. Comments by Alex Nyerges, Director

The Director reported that much hard work has been done by all the Trustees, Directors, advisors, consultants and staff who led the charge to inform each level of staff of the House and Senate and the Legislators of VMFA’s needs. He thanked all who got us this far and said we have made good progress.

Mr. Nyerges mentioned that at the Statewide Task Force meeting we were shown a map of all the places we have held community meetings across the state in the last twelve months. He noted that Southside Virginia drew a huge crowd, with social events and openings which made us more visible to the state legislators. He said these meetings are valuable and these visits are paying huge dividends. Pam Reynolds indicated that the statewide partner’s feedback is so important. She and Susan Goode thanked the staff for all the hard work involved.

IV. Status Report on the 2008 General Assembly – David Bradley

Mr. Bradley and Carol Amato gave background information about the budget specifics. David Bradley brought the state budget pieces, the budget bill for the upcoming biennium, the caboose bill and the Governor’s Executive budget – all big thick books. He said the House Appropriations Committee and the Senate Finance Committee will take up each other’s versions of the budget tomorrow.
Carol Amato noted that the Governor asked for reductions of five percent from some other agencies while ours was reduced by four percent, or $363,735. Ms. Amato distributed a handout chart of the current status of the operating budgets for the 2008-10 biennium. This chart shows a summary of what we did to reduce the Museum’s operating budget. She said that on Sunday the House and Senate released their budget plans which included additional reductions; however, the Governor had no additional reductions for VMFA. The Senate’s budget contained a reversion from the 2008 fiscal year of funds that had previously been authorized by the Department of Planning and Budget to be carried over from 2007. Steps are being taken to get those funds restored. Ms. Amato announced that tomorrow the Fiscal Oversight Committee will review the revised budget with the reductions included. She said we are holding some vacant positions until the budget is finalized. She went on to say we have not laid anyone off, we have managed our general fund money, and by reducing services we can live with these reductions so far.

David Bradley distributed the Committee Amendments to the Appropriation for the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts document and reviewed this with the Committee. He noted that the Museum received permission from the Department of Planning and Budget to carry forward the funds and has already committed $80,000 toward the statewide traveling exhibitions. He said that Bill Axselle and Sandy Bowen are trying to interpret the amendments, but are not able to talk to Senate and House staff now as they are preparing themselves to present the respective version of the budget to the two chambers.

David Bradley reviewed the list of General Assembly 2008 Budget Conferees. He had the official list of the House Appropriations Committee and an unofficial list of the Senate Finance Committee conferees. Mr. Bradley showed the committee the revised budget message points being used in meetings with legislators. He then described other legislation of note with the group listing the patrons of each bill.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Susan Goode, at 3:10 pm. She thanked the staff for their hard work on this wonderfully successful year.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed and seconded that the minutes of the last meeting of the Government Affairs Committee held on the 20th of February 2008 be approved as distributed on the 26th of March 2008. Motion carried.

III. Comments by Alex Nyerges, Director

The Director reported that in these stressful times for the Commonwealth we have been blessed with our incredible Carol Amato and David Bradley who have worked with the Governor’s Office and members and staff of the General Assembly to secure additional funding for VMFA priorities in the state budget. He also thanked the Trustees and friends and Foundation Directors who have helped with this effort, as it worked. He said we have many reasons to celebrate at this time.

IV. Observations about the 2008 General Assembly and the Future – David Bradley

Mr. Bradley announced that the annual Government Affairs Committee report was in today’s meeting folders and would be included in the folders tomorrow for the Annual Meeting. He remarked that the reason VMFA had been so successful was that we started with clearly defined and defensible goals, cultivation was strategic and early, we utilized a team of outside consultants, and the effort was woven together by a communications plan that included e-mails, extensive phone calls and newspaper articles. He added that by starting early, we got in with our message and got out before things became frantic so we did not have to compete with other messages. We also made certain we were not too over exposed.

Mr. Bradley mentioned that the Statewide Task Force and the LOOK HERE exhibitions played a very important role in all that was going on and was our opportunity to wave our flag. We delivered eight LOOK HERE exhibitions and three of them were in Richmond. In addition we had articles and editorials in other parts of the state. David Bradley reported that twenty-one Artist Fellowship recipients had photos taken with their legislators, John Staelin and Alex Nyerges at the General Assembly in February. They were also seated in the Senate Gallery and recognized by Senator John Watkins and Lt. Governor Bolling. He also noted that the fact card needs a redesign, and the event for the Legislature needs to be re-engineered with a goal of increasing attendance and reducing the number of no shows. Ms. Walls noted that the dinner is an educational opportunity and we should keep it going each year. She said we might also offer preview tours of the new wing to draw in the legislators. Dr. Schexnider agreed that a preview tour would be a fun experience for them.

Mr. Bradley noted that looking to the 2009 session, there has been no guidance from the administration as to what budget item we would be permitted to submit. He said the transportation issue is still looming and the Governor is calling a special session to address the issue. Our strategy for next year is to plan one-on-one legislative visits, have key legislators here with their spouses for hard hat tours and then to The Oaks for dinner.

John Staelin said having the money committee people come in and explain their process had been a good strategy as he feels it made it harder for them to turn us down, but it also gave the committee members a better understanding of the process. Alex Nyerges asked the group to think about what each of them may be able to do to keep the ball rolling and build on what we have accomplished. He said if they think that a breakfast or a visit with their legislator is in order to please call on him or David Bradley to join them. Susan Goode said the statewide effort is so important and will continue to be in the future.

Motion: proposed and seconded that the minutes of the last meeting of the Government Affairs Committee held on the 19th of May 2008 be approved as distributed on the 29th of July 2008. Motion carried.

III. Comments by Alex Nyerges, Director

The Director thanked everyone for all their efforts regarding Government Affairs last year.

IV. 2009 General Assembly and the Future - David Bradley

Mr. Bradley announced that the Governor has requested budget reduction plans of five, ten and fifteen percent from each state agency and distributed a document showing the dollar values of those cuts on the museum. Vice-Chairman Michael Schewel was asked to introduce guest speaker, Tony Maggio, Higher Education and Capital Outlay Analyst, House Appropriations Committee, who was present to discuss the budget process.

Mr. Schewel stated that Mr. Maggio has been a legislative fiscal analyst for the House Appropriations Committee since 2001. He provides staff support and expertise to the Committee in the areas of higher education and capital outlay. The Museum is one of his oversight agencies and he knows our expansion project very well. He previously served as a budget manager for 12 years at VCU, a finance coordinator at the State Council of Higher Education, and as a capital outlay coordinator for the Community College System.

Mr. Maggio explained that the budget process is initiated by the Governor. He will submit a proposed budget on December 17, 2008 to a joint meeting of the House Appropriations, House Finance and Senate Finance Committees. The Committees examine revenue and expenditure assumptions in the Governor’s introduced budget. They set funding priorities and consider requests by General Assembly members to amend the budget. Mr. Maggio then reviewed the appropriations subcommittees, their staff and important dates for the budget process.

Mr. Maggio spoke about the 21st Century Capital Improvement Program (CIP). He said the goals of the program were to provide the legislature with a roadmap to evaluate capital requests and need, elevate capital review to the level of the operating budget and to create a CIP process similar to that followed by local government and transportation. He said the program would be a collaborative, nonpartisan effort with greater accountability and will result in projects being built faster. He listed financing mechanisms for the Capital Improvement Program and discussed the state’s debt capacity and project funding highlights. Mr. Maggio then noted the economic impact of CIP saying the three impacts on the economy would be:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Direct</td>
<td>Expenditures for construction, improvements, and planning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indirect</td>
<td>Firms that provide goods and services to construction contractors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Induced</td>
<td>Increases in business activity lead to increased employment and household income which results in greater spending in the region</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The economic effect of this construction activity could produce upwards of 20,500 full and part time jobs and these jobs would produce about $973 million in labor income. State tax revenue would also be impacted by the economic, employment and wage effects of this activity.

Mr. Bradley, President Reynolds and Chairman Goode all thanked Mr. Maggio for coming today and for his very informative presentation.

V. Other Business/ Adjournment

There being no further business, the Chairman adjourned the meeting at 4:13 pm. It was announced that the next Government Affairs Committee meeting will be held on February 18, 2009.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order by the VMFA Board of Trustees President, Pamela Reynolds, at 4:15 pm.

II. OPENING REMARKS – Pamela Reynolds and Herbert A. Claiborne III

Pamela Reynolds welcomed the group and reviewed past Trustee support such as Lillian Thomas Pratt’s donation of the Museum’s Fabergé collection. She mentioned that 32 Virginia Artists and art students have been awarded a total of $190,000 in Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Fellowships, celebrated today at the General Assembly. She went on to say that the Museum has awarded more than $3.8 million to 1,035 professional and student artists to date and money for the Fellowships comes from a privately endowed fund initiated in 1940 by John Lee Pratt of Fredericksburg (husband of Lillian Pratt). Mrs. Reynolds thanked Birch Douglass, Herbert A. Claiborne III and the Foundation Investment Committee for encouraging all of us to come together at this very important moment to talk about the amazing institution that we are all proud to be a part of, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

Herbert A. Claiborne III welcomed both boards and said that President Reynolds provides inspiration to us all. He added that the Foundation Board looks forward to working hand in hand with the Board of Trustees to achieve the campaign goal and maybe even exceed the goal. Mrs. Reynolds said there will be an exciting announcement from a VMFA Foundation Director shortly.

III. THE TOP TEN FUND, Taking Our Place Among the Finest – Alex Nyerges

Alex Nyerges pointed out that those present had received the executive summary of the Museum’s priority needs and these were reviewed at the last board meeting. He touched on some of the close out costs stating that they were real costs due to the escalation of construction materials. He told of the bridge and bond financing and the costs of running the campaign. He explained that the Top Ten Fund in general terms will give this institution the quality to compare ourselves to other comprehensive museums in the United States (museums such as Santa Fe, Minneapolis, Dallas, Houston, LA County, the best institutions with broad collections). The Director believes we will be in the top ten institutions in membership when we open and hold our first banner exhibition in 2010 and he feels that staying in the top ten is doable.
The Director noted that the other portion of the Fund is to build the endowments as we move forward. He said the goals are clear and achievable and that in a moment Peter Wagner will address how we will attain the campaign goals.

IV. UPDATE ON BOARD OF TRUSTEE ACTION OF FEBRUARY 21 - Pamela Reynolds

Board of Trustees President Pamela Reynolds read the following motion that was passed unanimously by the Full Board of Trustees at their quarterly meeting on Thursday, February 21, 2008.

Motion: that the goals, purposes and methods of the Top Ten Campaign be approved as outlined, and that the Museum staff and the Foundation staff be authorized to cooperatively plan for and implement the plan for the Top Ten Campaign as outlined.

V. CAMPAIGN PLAN OF ACTION - Peter Wagner

Peter Wagner addressed the group saying that the campaign plan is an attempt to address the following critical questions germane to conducting a successful fundraising effort.

1. Do we have specific objectives for a campaign? For example:
   - Building restoration or renovation
   - Equipment
   - Endowment
   - Program support
2. Do we know how much money we need to raise?
3. Does the museum have a sound case for support, a compelling vision for the future?
4. Are there adequate sources of support available to the museum?
5. Is the necessary volunteer and staff leadership available to assist with the campaign?
6. And probably the most important question – Is the museum committed to the idea of a campaign?

Mr. Wagner said he thinks the plan answers most of these questions very well. He thinks the proof of that is the success we have had over the past several months in raising funds for specific components of the priority needs listed in the plan.

He went on to say the campaign will not be starting from ground zero. We have primed the pump and to date have already raised $4.4 million dollars in private funds from individuals, corporations and foundations towards our campaign goals. He said he was very happy to make the long-awaited announcement that Foundation Director, Edie Cabaniss, has just contributed an additional $1 million to the campaign. Mrs. Cabaniss was given a warm round of applause and she fondly discussed her many years of involvement with VMFA.
Mr. Wagner said if the last couple of months (and days) are any indication of future success, and he believes they are, we are off to an excellent start. Alex Nyerges fielded a few questions from the group.

VI. VMFA FOUNDATION APPROVAL OF THE TOP TEN FUND
   - Herbert A. Claiborne III

Herbert A. Claiborne III, President of the VMFA Foundation Board of Directors proposed the following motion.

Motion: proposed by Mr. Claiborne and seconded by Mr. Walmsley, that the goals, purposes and methods of the Top Ten Campaign be approved as outlined, and that the Museum staff and the Foundation staff be authorized to cooperatively plan for and implement the plan for the Top Ten Campaign as outlined. The motion was approved unanimously by the Foundation Board of Directors present.

The meeting adjourned at 4:40 pm.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Ms. Tina Walls, called the meeting to order at 1:39 pm and thanked everyone present for making time for a Marketing & Branding update. Alex Nyerges said we need to start implementing these ideas as we have just 18 months until the magic begins. He said that next June will bring the opening of the Lewis Galleries which will be the biggest event before the opening of the McGlothlin Wing in the spring of 2010.

II. REVIEW OF PROJECT – Alexis Vaughn

Alexis Vaughn reported that we began our relationship with LaPlaca Cohen in 2006 while searching for the right person to fill the opening of Deputy Director of Sales and Marketing. Ms. Vaughn was chosen to fill the position and once she arrived, she looked at the progress made with LaPlaca Cohen and noted that Phase 1 of the project was complete. Phase 2 was the marketing plan and now we must refocus on these two pieces and move them forward together.
III. MARKETING OVERVIEW PRESENTATION - Suzanne Hall

Ms. Hall thanked Tina Walls, Harry Thalhimer and Nancy Lund who helped push this project through. She indicated that we learned a lot from the process and now we are ready to take the show on the road. She gave a PowerPoint presentation with the following information.

Ms. Hall reviewed the LaPlaca Cohen eight recommended Actions for Success.

1. Articulate a clear benefit-driven vision for the Museum
2. Restructure internal management decision-making processes
3. Formally articulate the Museum’s statewide mission
4. Systematize budgeting
5. Adopt a “Deep and Narrow” model for audience development
6. Tailor communication messages to prioritized target audiences
7. Execute an interim communications campaign during construction
8. Adopt a position statement that incorporates the ideas of Access for All, Quality, Array of Programs, Source of Price, More to Enjoy, and Free.

Ms. Hall noted the importance of defining ourselves: Who We Are (features), What We Do (actions), and To What End (benefits). She said that most important to us is our Statewide Mission which is included in everything from Government Affairs to each employee’s work profile. Ms. Hall reviewed the Key Messages of the Plan which are:

- Wide Array of Programs
- An Institution of Tremendous Stature
- Permanent Collection Free to All
- VMFA’s Role as Educator
- Wow

Suzanne Hall then introduced the Tagline “my VMFA” and reviewed its applications. This tagline will be used on member magazines, program cards, print advertisements, e-mail templates and banners starting in March of 2009. She reviewed the marketing plan with revisions stating the objectives, principal strategies and comparative research findings. She noted that newspaper and public radio still drive most museums’ business. She thanked Altria for the great experts we have had to help us think about maximizing our resources and making the best of what we have.

Phases of the plan are pre-opening, grand opening and post expansion. Pre-opening would consist of on-going exhibitions and programs, announcements at a media event in New York on expansion, the Fischer acquisition, and the Lewis Gallery re-openings, and readiness. The grand opening would capture attention, maintain consistent messaging, and drive resources and attendance to VMFA programs and revenue centers. In summary it was thought that this plan would significantly increase engagement of VMFA regionally and nationally, transition VMFA to a revenue-centered institution, and allocate marketing resources to all institutional programs.

Our next steps would be to continue to refine the marketing plan, redesign the website, roll out the brand and assess and allocate our resources. Ms. Hall again thanked Altria for their support which allowed the VMFA to utilize expertise that may not have been available.
IV. DISCUSSION

Tina Walls opened the meeting up for discussion and asked the group for their comments or questions. Some members were very positive about the tagline “my VMFA” and thought it was fresh, young and inviting. Some thought it was too elitist and suggested using “my, your and our VMFA.” Ms. Clement asked if the tagline would be used for everything, and it was explained that it would only be used for certain applications and always with Virginia Museum of Fine Arts spelled out. As a whole the committee was enthusiastic about the “my VMFA” tagline.

Members thought we could not go the “deep and narrow” route as our mission is to serve a broad audience. Mr. Thalhimer said we need to connect with those other than our VMFA family and Mrs. Reynolds agreed. Ms. Vaughn mentioned “fun” as a key message and Mr. Adams agreed. Ms. Lund felt that “fun” was a tone, not a message. The Director noted that the permanent collection being free to all gets the “wow” from audiences he addresses. Ms. Walls felt that the three key messages should be special exhibitions, statewide, and education. Committee members discussed various ideas for the opening and beyond.

Mr. Moore explained to the group that their purpose was to assure that VMFA – both the Museum and the Foundation - operate properly to become one of the Top Ten Museums in the United States. He explained that no concerns had been expressed that prompted the establishment of the task force but that it was a timely activity to take place in tandem with the strategic plan being developed for 2010-2015. He believes that the Task Force should assure that:

- The organizations best fit their collective mission
- There is transparency and efficiency in the organizations
- There is proper alignment of functions that maximize communication, collaboration and innovation and
- The authority of individuals is commensurate with their responsibilities

Information distributed included:
- Enabling legislation for VMFA
- Organizational charts for all VMFA departments
- Audit report of VMFA by the Auditor of Public Accounts for 2007-2008
- Latest response to Performance Measures and Management Scorecard
- Brief facts about VMFA Foundation
- By-laws of VMFA Foundation
- Articles of Incorporation for VMFA Foundation
- Mission Statement for VMFA Foundation
A book entitled “National Standards and Best Practices for US Museums” published by the American Association of Museums (AAM) has been checked out from the museum’s library for use by the Task Force. Ms. Amato commented that she believes Virginia’s standards are somewhat higher than those outlined in the book.

Additional materials requested for use by Task Force:

- Personnel classification and compensation analyses for Museum and Foundation and a comparison of the two
- Internal control reports from Museum and Foundation
- Checklist of what is required by AAM for a museum to be accredited
- Statewide Task Force Report
- Report on Trustee retreat and museum assessment conducted by Barbara Taylor
- Drafts of the Strategic Plan as it progresses

Discussion included:

- Who needed to be brought in to provide information?
- Alex should identify any other staff members with whom the Task Force should meet.
- Pete Wagner should be added to the list of people to interview.
- The Association of Governing Boards for Colleges and Universities would be a good resource for how foundations are allied to public institutions.
- Some Trustees had indicated they would like to speak with Eva or Thurston regarding best practices.
- When soliciting comments from others, specific questions should be asked regarding the organization of the museum.
- New IRS rules coming out in 2010 will affect non-profits and probably should be reviewed by the Task Force.
- How can it be determined if VMFA is actually meeting what is stated in the Mission Statement?

Timeline for Task Force Work:

The final draft of the 2010-2015 Strategic Plan is scheduled for March or April with approval by the Board of Trustees at their May meeting.

The Organizational Excellence Task Force should complete its work by May 15, 2009 to coincide with the Strategic Plan timeline.

I.  Call to Order - Pamela Reynolds, Current Board President

President Reynolds called the meeting to order at 12:07 pm and welcomed the group to the second annual President’s Council luncheon. She stated the reason for the meeting was to draw on the leadership experience of the former VMFA Board Presidents and to thank them for their amazing service.

President Reynolds reported that three new committees have been formed, Organizational Excellence, headed by Thurston Moore and Eva Teig Hardy, the Education Committee, headed by Suzanne Mastracco, and the Advancement Committee, headed by Barbara-lyn Morris and Ranjit Sen.
II. Remarks of the Chief Operating Officer - Carol Amato

Carol Amato noted that this was the 15th time she has dealt with a state budget cut and many of the Presidents present had been through them with her. She explained that VMFA had been given the maximum cut, 15%, by the Governor and to avoid layoffs it was decided to use museum reserves to cover the costs for FY09. She said we cannot handle any deeper cuts that the General Assembly might bring later on. And we will not be able to sustain any FY10 cuts and still open the expansion. Therefore our message to the Administration will be that we need additional money to secure, open, and operate the building next year. $1 million is needed for additional energy costs, $500,000 for additional housekeeping, maintenance workers and security, and $500,000 for visitor services personnel when the building opens. Ms. Amato said we will seek a special appropriation because it is necessary. Those present discussed ways to conserve and strategies for approaching the General Assembly.

III. Remarks of the Director

Alex Nyerges introduced Noah Adams from NPR who is researching a story on art museums today. Mr. Nyerges then introduced Alexis Vaughn, our new Deputy Director for Sales and Marketing. He told the group that Ms. Vaughn was the former Chief Operating Officer of the North Carolina Museum of Art and has worked for Citicorp and the Peace Corps.

The Director mentioned that we are working with Whiting-Turner to settle change orders and negotiating a final settlement for the McGlothlin Wing. He said he looks forward to the opening of the Lewis Galleries which should happen next June 2009. The new wing should be open by April of 2010 for many different previews with donors, members, media, hospitality workers and others. The capstone will be a June 1st banner exhibition and then a Flower Ball in the fall of 2010.

Alex Nyerges gave a Top Ten Fundraising update saying that Altria increased its pledge by $1.4 million which takes its commitment to a total of $2 million. Susan and David Goode have just given $2.5 million to the campaign and an anonymous gift of $2 million has come in. The Director noted that we continue to make progress and we are on the right path. President Reynolds agreed and said we have the right Director for the right time.

IV. Strategic Plan - Nancy Raybin

Nancy Raybin, Strategic Planning Consultant, described her strategic planning process with a PowerPoint presentation for the former Presidents. She noted that this was a delightful time to be working with the museum staff and she is focusing on the years 2010 - 2015. Ms. Raybin asked those present to give their thoughts on the following topics.

- Financial sustainability
- Audience expansion
- Program enhancement (collection, education, outreach)
The group agreed that state funding will probably decrease in the future and will always be a constant struggle so that ways to earn revenue are key. The importance of Annual Giving was noted and scholarly production by our curators needs to be noticed. The need for statewide outreach and enhanced technology to be increased was mentioned. It was hoped that our prestige and standing in the museum community would rise when we have our new expansion and sculpture garden open. Alex Nyerges said this is what is behind the idea of being one of the Top Ten museums in the nation.

Nancy Raybin thanked everyone for the helpful feedback. She said she has talked to other interesting and thoughtful people including Trustees, Directors and staff. She plans to meet with the Managers and Coordinators and major donors to get a good cross section of ideas.

President Reynolds thanked the Former Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Board Presidents for attending saying it was their hard work that got us here today.

The meeting adjourned at 1:40 pm.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order by President Reynolds 3:45 pm.

II. RESTAURANT OPERATION PLANNING

Pamela Reynolds distributed information on art museum restaurants for further reading. John Curtis requested financial profiles on art museum restaurants including sample contracts such as MOMA.

Decisions and topics to be discussed:
* Management of in-house vs. contract
* Furniture/Fixtures/Small Equipment
* Café furniture: tables, chairs, small ware
* Lighting for dining areas

John Curtis asked if the bar was included in the design.
Action Item: Alex Nyerges will follow up with Richard Woodward to verify.

Pamela Reynolds asked if we can afford a Rick Mather design.
Action Item: John Curtis said it is believed all built ins and lighting were designed and included in the Expansion Budget. Carol Amato will verify. She will also verify what is included such as: built in seating, Board Room/Trustee Dining Room built ins.

Mr. Curtis asked if a design firm will be engaged as there is a need for a unified feeling and an ambiance. He asked if the projection in the business plan was accurate (a $2.3 million gross and a $706,000 net/profit).

Action Item: Carol Amato will verify.

Mrs. Reynolds noted that menu design is a decision to be made. She asked if we will entertain a Celebrity Chef.

Discussion centered on the style and logistics of the third floor restaurant with emphasis and interest placed on the use of the private dining room. Carol Amato explained our current full time and part time pool of employees and our operations.

All agreed that quality was the top priority. Thurston Moore asked us to discuss the process to decide which was better in-house vs. contractor. John Curtis recommended a presentation to this sub-committee.

Action Item: We will survey several prominent art museums to determine:

- a. out source vs. in-house
- b. gross revenues
- c. net revenues

Carol Amato noted the current food service does work at cost in-house. John Curtis encouraged Cathy Turner to survey other institutions. Carol Amato expressed concerns about outsourcing.

Action Item: Carol Amato and Cathy Turner will present the group with her budget information for outfitting the restaurant and café.

Action Item: Carol Amato and Alex Nyerges will consult with Rick Mather and Peter Culley on design expectations.

III. FOOD SERVICE SPECIAL EVENTS PROFILE

A document showing capital expenditures for the McGlothlin Wing Restaurants was distributed. John Curtis asked to affirm that the Private Dining Room and the Board Room are included in the estimates for the Fixtures, Furniture and Equipment (FFE). He asked if the Board Room had a budget for FFE.
Cathy Turner presented a PowerPoint overview on Food Service and Special Events including organizational structure, hours, facilities, and special events. It was noted that 340 special events were held last year. Ms. Turner compared operations prior to construction, during construction and plans for post construction. She reviewed the financial profile for FY07. A profit of $50,000 is anticipated in FY08.

John Curtis asked about the overhead cost allocation for in-house events as we move forward. Ms. Turner reviewed projected and planned for post-expansion for food service and special events. A comparison with November 2007 and December 2007 was presented. John Curtis urged a careful review of pricing to reflect real costs and overhead.

IV. RESTAURANT DESIGN

Peter Culley presented restaurant design concepts using examples from Rick Mather facilities. Current design specifications include bar, lighting and loose furniture concepts, flooring (restaurant carpeting choices including color have already been selected), acoustic ceilings, and café hard surface flooring. Furniture is planned to be purchased vs. custom produced and of North American/USA origin. A heavy emphasis on the interrelationship of interior and exterior spaces is planned for both restaurant facilities with lots of natural light.

Furniture will reflect a Leslie Cheek tradition with emphasis on clean, modern design such as Knoll, etc. Peter Culley presented an extensive visual overview of possibilities in furniture.

V. FOOD SERVICE MANAGEMENT OPTIONS

Cathy Turner distributed two documents. The first was a strategy to operate the restaurants and the second document gave a comparison of other museum food service operations illustrating the question of in-house management vs. contractor operated food service.

John Curtis asked us to have both the Museum Expansion Committee and Fiscal Oversight Committee review these presentations and ideas/proposals.

John Staelin agreed that the in-house vs. contractor decision needs to be approved by the Fiscal Oversight Committee and the Full Board of Trustees.

I. Introductory Remarks

Director Alex Nyerges welcomed the group at 12:10 pm and introduced consultant Nancy Raybin. Mr. Nyerges announced that Nancy was a Virginian and a VMFA member and thanked her for being here to lead this charge. Mr. Claiborne III, Foundation President, addressed the group and thanked them for their time. He noted that this adventure should take about nine months and he cannot wait to see what comes out of this process. Trustee President, Pamela Reynolds, said we are very excited as we begin the strategic planning of the Museum's big picture which is extremely important. She said we need this planning to support the Business Plan that former President Charlotte Minor headed up. We need to examine whether the Top Ten Fund of $60 million is enough as we look at budget cuts in the General Assembly because we are a state institution and need to be aware of all that that brings. Mrs. Reynolds noted that we are becoming a big institution and one that needs to be seamless. She said we are proud to be one VMFA family and glad the Foundation Executive Committee has joined us today. Mrs. Reynolds noted that the one person really driving this planning is Carol Amato and she presented Ms. Amato with flowers and thanked her.

II. Review of Planning Process Goals and Objectives

Opportunities to engage Trustees, Directors, Staff, Constituencies
Progress to Date - Nancy Raybin

Nancy Raybin remarked that she is delighted to be here and she reviewed the process she will follow. She said the work plan was developed with Carol Amato and Alex Nyerges. The first activity is to "Plan to Plan" and the entire process will go through May of next year. Ms. Raybin will draft a positioning paper after this first meeting and will continue to dialog with key staff, trustees, foundation directors, and friends of the museum. Ms. Raybin will meet with both boards to review the planning process, the revised positioning paper and to facilitate discussion on priority issues. A seminar on planning will be held with community leaders to help all understand the importance of strategic planning.
Ms. Raybin said she will convene six to eight meetings of key constituency groups, create a summary of our findings and then a preliminary plan. She will brief the boards on the progress in January and digest the findings in February. March will bring a one day retreat to discuss key strategic options and gain a consensus on framework, direction and options. The Final plan will be drafted in March and April and in May we will review, revise and approve the Plan.

III. Key Strategic Issues facing the institution 2010-2015: Group Discussion

Nancy Raybin asked the committee members to state what they felt was the most critical strategic issue facing the institution. Some of the responses are listed here.

- Stable source of funding over the long run
- Operations improvements
- Bigger endowment
- Larger unrestricted support
- Follow-through on completing infrastructure improvements
- How to make the museum appealing to younger people
- Achieve and sustain larger membership
- Continue to raise funds to support acquisitions, programs and operations
- Attendance and membership increases to meet the state’s goals
- Encourage higher level membership
- Top notch programming and exhibitions
- More diverse audiences
- State support secured
- Permanent collection in top ten
- Statewide outside Richmond
- Awareness that VMFA is for all ages
- Earned income/attendance when we open
- Keep people coming back
- Staffing levels
- How do we communicate with young people?
- Broaden the local community
- Bring children in to experience the “joy of looking at art”
- Maintain and commit to strengthen the curatorial staff
- Regional and international commitments
- How to compete with other leisure activities of teens and young adults
- Preservation, education, scholarship
- Mission of VMFA, strengthen the collection
- Complete the campaign successfully
- Staff salaries are a weakness, sub standard, and certainly not top ten
- Mistake not to include the top ten program in our strategic planning
- Develop our uniqueness – we are the most successful private/public museum in the country
- Continue to serve our statewide partners
- Redefine a museum visit
- Focus on our immediate needs
- Long term vision – engagement, participation, attendance, on-line and here
Director, Alex Nyerges, said the bottom line is money, art, programming and making a museum visit relevant, exciting and fun. He explained that if we make it relevant, the funding will come and the audience will be there.

IV. Next Steps

Nancy Raybin said this is the beginning. She asked the group to keep these ideas flowing. The next step is for Ms. Raybin to develop the positioning paper showing what the year 2015 will look like and get more detailed feedback.

President Reynolds said today we are a big institution thinking as a big institution. She noted that Staff will be more involved as we go along and said this is your Strategic Plan and it is important to get it right so you will be pleased at the end.

No other business was brought before the Committee and the meeting adjourned at 1:30 pm.

I.  Introductory Remarks

Director Alex Nyerges welcomed the group at 1:00 pm and thanked consultant Nancy Raybin for all her hard work. He also thanked Carol Amato and Carol Moon for all their support. He said that it is so exciting to think that in sixteen months the new wing will come on line. Mr. Nyerges announced that the Statewide Task Force will give their final report to the Board of Trustees in November showing that we are following two very important parallel paths, statewide and expansion, on our way to being a Top Ten institution.

II.  Overview of First Planning Meeting and New Developments - Nancy Raybin

Nancy Raybin remarked that she was pleased to be back with us again. She said that today we will talk about key strategic issues and how they are shaping up. We will have three related conversations about serving the community and our constituents, engaging younger audiences, strengthening our statewide impact and reaching diverse populations within our communities.

In a PowerPoint presentation, Ms. Raybin covered what we want to accomplish. Increased financial sustainability and growth was the first issue and this included:

- Securing a stable source of funding over the long run through operational improvements, bigger endowments and larger sources of unrestricted support
- Continuing to raise funds to support acquisitions, programs, and operations
- Encouraging higher-level memberships
- Securing state support
- Assuring earned income revenues through increased attendance post-expansion
- Completing the campaign!

The next issue was increased attendance including:

- Ensuring that VMFA’s long-term vision is about engagement, participation, and attendance
- Working toward attendance and membership increases to meet the state’s goals as well as ours
- Making VMFA a mecca for the community, and in doing so strengthening our case for state funding
Ms. Raybin elaborated on the following ways we will succeed.

- Enhancing program quality
- Becoming more effective/efficient in managing resources
- Continuing to attract and retain top quality staff
- Investing in marketing
- Better positioning of the Museum with our constituencies and in our communities

III. Opportunities to Engage Constituencies (Discussion)

Engaging Younger Audiences

Sandy Rusak, Deputy Director for Education and Statewide Partnerships, gave an overview of our education programs. She explained that VMFA provides programming for youth from when they are in strollers visiting with their families through early childhood, SOL based programs for students K-12, teen and college age programs. These programs vary from guided tours in the galleries to taking programs right into the schools. She said we offer after school programs, Saturday Family days, and non-school related programs. Ms. Rusak noted that our teen audiences, who are traditionally harder to get involved, have a very active and successful teen advisory group that produce a magazine, and art and fashion shows. She told about our college night offerings which bring hundreds of college students from as far away as Washington and Lee. We want to encourage these audiences as they become young adults to engage in a lifelong learning and interest in VMFA.

Charlotte Minor, VMFA Foundation Vice-President, agreed that Sandy Rusak and her staff do an excellent job with all the programs mentioned. She felt that to enhance it all, we need more use of the internet, which takes funding; and we need to reach and engage more lower-income children who might not return after their school visits. Ms. Minor suggested contacting churches and possibly explore mentoring programs modeled on Virginia Commonwealth University’s prototype. Ms. Minor felt we need to do a better job of getting large numbers of VCU students here to tour the galleries.

The committee members discussed more ideas such as having young people design a webpage for children; marketing on the internet – sending young audiences a monthly blast of what’s going on here; more support groups for people in their 20s, 30s, and 40s; encouraging local firms to get new hires involved at VMFA; partner with VCU more on conservation or curatorial programs; or create an initiative for future leaders and supporters.

Trustee Vice-President, Richard Tilghman, remarked that we are already doing a great job, are pleased with what we do, and just need to do more of it. Director, Alex Nyerges, said the difference between what we need and what we have is not big and the $4 million goal in the campaign’s education area would address many of the things talked about today.
Strengthening VMFA’s Impact Statewide

Robin Nicholson, Deputy Director of Exhibitions, summarized the almost two years of work done by the Trustee Statewide Task Force. He said the group started by distributing a statewide survey to museum partners, scheduling statewide community meetings to discuss and assess VMFA’s programs, and holding three day-long retreats for the Museum’s senior staff to engineer change to integrate statewide priorities throughout the institution. Mr. Nicholson said now a formal draft of the Task Force Report has been written. He said VMFA has done a good job and our partners appreciate the work we do.

He noted some of the issues we face such as not being as well-known as we’d like to think, for example having minimal impact in Northern Virginia. Other issues include the fact that after the 1999 Egypt blockbuster, the vast majority of Virginia visitors never returned. He also noted how the now defunct artmobile made a special impact on audiences who never visited VMFA or would never be exposed to art in their communities. At the moment most of our statewide exhibitions and programs are aimed at an art-receptive audience via our partner institutions. This leads to the bigger question of how can an art museum be relevant in the 21st century.

Alex Nyerges said that we look forward to working with George Mason University to have a presence in Northern Virginia as we need a physical presence there to be known. It was suggested that with consistent programming and presence, we would get Nova traffic. Others ideas voiced by the group were that we need to work with NoVa Community Colleges to reach the 18-25 year olds; get something going on-line since we are now digital; state institutions here could offer partnership opportunities; we could partner with the Virginia Historical Society; have private collectors open their homes to visitors; and we need to learn how other institutions are doing with their satellite operations.

Nancy Raybin noted that due to time constraints the Committee would cover the third issue of “Reaching Diverse Populations Within our Communities” at the next meeting.

IV. Next Steps - Nancy Raybin

Nancy Raybin said the next steps will be for her to develop the positioning paper with Alex Nyerges. She will meet with the Executive Committee and other smaller groups with the positioning paper. The Organizational Excellence work group will get started and a strategic planning seminar will be scheduled.

No other business was brought before the Committee and the meeting adjourned at 2:30 pm.

I. Introductory Remarks

Director Alex Nyerges welcomed the group at 1:30 pm and thanked them for attending and participating as this will increase the value of our end result.

Consultant Nancy Raybin stated that she was pleased that everyone put so much into the meetings during the summer. She said today we will finish up the agenda from our August meeting with Alexis Vaughn and Ranjit Sen reporting on Reaching Diverse Constituencies and Eva Tieg Hardy leading discussion on the Organizational Excellence Task Force.

Motion: proposed and seconded that the minutes of the July 28th meeting of the Strategic Planning Committee be approved as distributed on the 9th of September. Motion carried.

II. Reaching Diverse Constituencies Within our Communities - Nancy Raybin, Alexis Vaughn, and Ranjit Sen

Alexis Vaughn addressed the group explaining what we do now to reach diverse constituencies. Her list included interpreting the permanent collections of world art which lends itself to many varieties of multi-cultural programs. She said the support groups work within diverse communities as ambassadors, Docents give tours in languages other than English, the Community Affairs Department has a presence at many community festivals, and “Buzz” targets community leaders to engage new communities.

Nancy Raybin went table by table and asked the members for their further recommendations. Among the ideas were cross selling programs, have affiliated groups purchase artwork giving them a stake in the museum, create a membership station, get more corporations involved, have a special exhibition for specific groups every three years, and contact newcomers clubs in the area.

III. Further Thoughts on Engaging Young People and Strengthening VMFA’s Impact Statewide - Nancy Raybin and Discussion

The group discussed ways to get young people involved through scouting, schools, and churches. Suggestions included setting up children’s sensory experiences, partnering with other non-profits such as Big Brothers, Big Sisters groups and soliciting student members from university student bodies the first week of school.

The discussion turned to how we assess success and how we define what it means to effectively reach a diverse population here and statewide. The question raised was if “reach” was defined by occasional visits, or ongoing relationships. The idea of identifying a specific target community and duplicating outreach throughout the state was mentioned. It was noted that VMFA cannot be everything to everyone.
IV. Organizational Excellence Task Force - Eva Teig Hardy

Eva Teig Hardy explained that an Organizational Excellence Task Force is being formed to be co-chaired by her and Thurston Moore. This group will examine how best to go about linking the Strategic Planning process to the opening of the new facility. It will help determine how we will optimize our effectiveness and become a Top Ten organization despite the state’s current major shortfalls. The task force will be assembled in the next few days and will hopefully include Secretary of Education Thomas R. Morris.

It was explained that this effort differs from the Business Plan in that it is more far-reaching than the earlier plan. The Business Plan focused on increasing revenues through expansion of services and did not examine areas of operation unrelated to profit centers. The state has initiated several initiatives targeted at improving internal controls, making this an opportune moment for the new task force.

V. Public-Private Partnership

The group discussed how state universities are a model for public-private partnerships in that in exchange for raising endowments, they have secured more freedom from the state. The group acknowledged that VMFA’s support from the state is unreliable. The museum currently relies on the state for approximately 50% of its operating budget. In times of economic shortfall, support for VMFA is not one of the state’s top priorities and the museum is still recovering from the last round of cuts, which were much less severe than those currently anticipated.

One way to sustain VMFA’s viability as a Top Ten institution is to figure out what it will cost to decrease the museum’s dependence on the state substantially and raise the endowment necessary for greater self-support. This greater financial independence might also allow more freedom of action, following the university model. However, the value of state support cannot be underestimated, as it does provide a safety net when the economy worsens. It was stated that we should not lose sight of the fact that even in a tough fiscal year (FY 09), our initial appropriation increased by more than 10%.

It was noted that when the new facility is opened, our greater dependence on income from our revenue-generating programs will make us more susceptible to economic downturns. Museum memberships and gifts to the Annual Giving Fund are likely to be among the first discretionary cuts made by individuals. While budget reductions will impact all aspects of planning, we should note that we are currently enjoying the fruits of our first Strategic Plan from 1995 in the McGlothlin Wing. Historically, times of crisis have helped membership numbers and major gift donations.

VI. Other Business/ Adjournment

The next meeting will be held on November 21 in the Pauley Center Parlor from 9:30-11:00 am. No other business was brought before the Committee and the meeting adjourned at 3:00 pm.

Suzanne Broyles, Secretary of the Museum
I. CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Suzanne Mastracco, called the meeting to order at 2:09 pm.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Goode and seconded by Mrs. Reynolds that the minutes of the last meeting of the Statewide Task Force held on the 19th of September 2007 be approved as distributed on the 23rd of October 2007. Motion carried.
III. VMFA STATE OF THE ARTS

LOOK HERE Speed at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center
Alex Nyerges said it has been a busy couple of months with fabulous community visits across Virginia to South Boston, Martinsville, and Danville. He noted that this trip drew the largest crowd yet and we received lots of input and excitement from partners very pleased with VMFA. He went on to say that the Speed exhibition opened in Newport News last month with a great crowd and we were very visible to the legislators, which is phenomenal. Next Tuesday, February 26th we take the Fellowship winners to Capitol Hill to meet their legislators and return to VMFA for lunch to celebrate their awards. This 70th anniversary as a truly statewide institution is a great time to show the General Assembly our support of Virginia artists.

Suzanne Mastracco noted that the Speed opening at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center was a great example of what we need to do with our Statewide Partners. The Peninsula Fine Arts Center showed what a partner can do when they go the extra mile with our exhibitions. She was impressed with their Family Day where everything in the art center was related to the theme of speed. Ms. Mastracco said we should use that experience as a model for future exhibitions. Susan Goode mentioned that the local advertising for Speed has been excellent and it has been on public radio twice a day.

IV. REPORT ON RECENT COMMUNITY MEETINGS

Susan Ferrell brought out a map showing all the places around the state where Staff and Trustees have visited our partners. She named the eight yellow locations on the map showing where we have been: Winchester, Staunton, Virginia Beach, Norfolk, Roanoke, McLean, Farmville and Martinsville. Ms. Ferrell said we are proposing three more locations: Northern Neck, Far Southwest Virginia and Charlottesville. She explained that we also invite people from the larger geographic areas around the partner locations to attend the community meetings. Ms. Ferrell told of the wonderful hospitality staff and trustees experienced at each location and said the partners have been very pleased with VMFA’s offerings.

V. UPCOMING MEETINGS AND NEXT STEPS

Sandy Rusak explained that this committee did not meet at the November quarterly meeting dates and must now catch up and plan another meeting before the May annual meeting. The group checked their calendars and decided to meet on Monday, April 21 at 10:00 am in the Pauley Center Second Floor meeting room.

Sandy Rusak went on to speak about the proposed format for the VMFA Statewide Task Force Report that will be presented at the May meeting. She distributed a document showing a possible format and asked for feedback from the group. She expects to send out a first draft of the report before the April meeting for committee review. Not all of the community meetings will have taken place by that time, but their input can be inserted into the report as it becomes available. Committee input and recommendations can be given at the April 21st meeting and then Ms. Rusak can make those modifications and send out the final work in the May meeting mailing.

No further business was brought before the Task Force, and the meeting adjourned at 2:50 pm.

I.  CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Suzanne Mastracco, called the meeting to order at 2:05 pm. She remarked that she was impressed with the progress made by the Task Force and noted that with only two more trips the whole state will have been covered by VMFA visits, openings or community meetings.

II.  MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Goode and seconded by Mrs. Reynolds that the minutes of the last meeting of the Statewide Task Force held on the 20th of February 2008 be approved as distributed on the 26th of March 2008. Motion carried.
III. VMFA STATE OF THE ARTS

LOOK HERE Speed at the University of Virginia Art Museum

Alex Nyerges said a week and a half ago the final opening of the exhibition LOOK HERE: Speed was held at the University of Virginia Art Museum. He noted that during the visit, staff had many good conversations about what our partnerships can accomplish and the exhibition helped to open many doors. The Director said this was a good ending to this component and we expect to have many of the same type of exhibitions travel the state.

IV. REPORT ON RECENT COMMUNITY MEETINGS

Susan Ferrell brought out the map showing all the places around the state where VMFA staff and Trustees have visited our partners. She also distributed a handout showing a snapshot of Statewide Partner Involvement to date. She explained that 51 written surveys were completed, 135 people attended the eleven statewide partner meetings and two future partner meetings are planned for the Eastern Shore and Far Southwest Virginia. Ms. Ferrell said it is very impressive what our Director, Alex Nyerges, has done to lead this charge to visit all of these communities and the staff appreciates his ambitious and energetic style. Having the Director as well as Trustees attend these community meetings is very much appreciated by the people in attendance.

Ms. Ferrell mentioned that since our last meeting on February 20th visits were made to the Northern Neck, Charlottesville and Lynchburg. She noted that as suggestions are given by our partners, VMFA staff works on ways to make their ideas happen. Besides our partners, also attending the community meetings are local municipal governments and area non-profit groups.

V. REORGANIZATION UPDATE AND NEXT STEPS

Sandy Rusak remarked that this Task Force is unique in terms of incorporating the changes suggested as we go along. For instance she said that prospective partners asked for a paper on our Partner Program which prompted Susan Ferrell and her team to create a lively brochure with application. Also, many schools said they loved our exhibitions, but the crates were so heavy that the shipping fee was too high for their budgets. As a result, the staff has researched new crates and is making a conversion to lighter weight models. This prompted discussions on possibly making each school in Virginia a VMFA partner free of charge. Mrs. Reynolds stated that this might be a very attractive sponsorship to a funder. Barbara-lyn Morris commented that she liked the idea of schools having free memberships. Dr. Schexnider said these were all good ideas.

Ms. Rusak indicated that we would also like to increase teacher training offerings as well as pilot a series of in-school field trips statewide. She announced that 10,000 children were served in the Metro Richmond area this year. Toy Cobbe said it would be good to teach the statewide partners how to work with their area schools also. Ms. Ferrell told the group that we would also like to work with colleges to allow our outreach programs to be part of their practicum classes for pre-service teachers. She noted that some colleges do not realize we have an internship program and marketing is needed to spread the word.
Dr. Schexnider asked if we should take a more systematic approach by going to the State Board of Education. Mr. Nyerges replied that he attends State Agency Head meetings and will work at it from several angles, from the top down. The Director said we have a good group of people here working hard and when we bring exhibitions Statewide we help visitation in Richmond as more people become aware of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. He stated that even curators, registrars and conservators are now getting involved in the traveling exhibitions.

Ms. Rusak said another change was that Alex Nyerges had each staff member now include a statewide component in their job description which she said is a wonderful message to everyone that Virginia really is our first name.

Sandy Rusak cited another very important change, Statewide Exhibitions have been under the Education and Statewide Partnerships Division and they have now moved to the Exhibitions Division and are included in the Exhibition Portfolio schedule. Ms. Rusak said this will really serve our constituencies beautifully. Robin Nicholson, Deputy Director of Exhibitions, explained that we will be looking to our partners to share in the development of our traveling statewide exhibitions.

Suzanne Mastracco noted that at the September meeting we should have the final Statewide Task Force report. She said we will send out a draft of the report to Task Force members over the summer for their review. Ms. Mastracco concluded by saying the attitude changes and concrete accomplishments resulting from this Task Force and the community meetings were fantastic and she thanked all who were involved.

I. CALL TO ORDER

The Chairman, Suzanne Mastracco, welcomed the group and called the meeting to order at 1:00 pm. She congratulated Sandy Rusak, Alex Nyerges, Robin Nicholson and Susan Ferrell for the extraordinary job they did in pulling together eighteen months of work into a comprehensive form in the Statewide Task Force Draft Report.

II. MINUTES

Motion: proposed by Mrs. Mastracco and seconded by Ms. Goode that the minutes of the last meeting of the Statewide Task Force held on the 19th of May 2008 be approved as distributed on the 29th of July 2008. Motion carried.
III.  VMFA STATE OF THE ARTS

Alex Nyerges remarked that the amount of effort put into this draft report by Susan Ferrell, Sandy Rusak and Robin Nicholson really made it work. He said in the thirteen visits across Virginia we found out how much we are valued for all we do. During the visits we listened and heard a lot of really good things and the report encapsulates this. Some of the improvements have already been implemented. The division heads recently held a statewide retreat and reviewed the draft document. There is a cost to each task and a larger budget is needed, but we are looking at the core values of the institution. The Director remarked that Education and Art are who we are, first and foremost and Virginia is our first name.

IV.  REVIEW OF STATEWIDE TASK FORCE DRAFT REPORT

Sandy Rusak thanked Suzanne Mastracco and Alex Nyerges and said it was an interesting exercise to go through the notes and begin to craft the report. She said the report will come with an executive summary that will be sent out with the final report. We want to concentrate today on the body of the report and fold in the staff changes when we are inserting your comments. Then we will send it out to you for the last time to be sure we have all your recommendations. The report will then be distributed to the Full Board in November. A budget and timetable will be incorporated. This is text only at the moment but it will have many pictures of Virginia and art and be more presentable in its final version.

Ms. Rusak opened the meeting up to discussion and members gave their suggested changes for the draft report. Barbara-lyn Morris asked if we had learned anything surprising. Alex Nyerges said he was surprised by the level of enthusiasm from the partners at the statewide meetings and the high numbers of people who attended. He noted that some people from the same town who did not know each other attended and we were able to facilitate introductions. Also people really needed and desired our support and wanted more. The level of praise was high and we learned that Jeffrey Allison and Trent Nicholas each have fan clubs across Virginia. Mrs. Reynolds explained that we learned what people were thinking and gleaned ideas from them.

Toy Cobbe was pleased that VMFA listened to their partners and heard the concerns across the state. She asked if the paragraph on page five regarding free exhibitions meant that the shipping was free also. The Director made a note to define that specifically in the final report.

Members discussed having an endowment for memberships for statewide partners and whether we should seek funding for this endowment. Ms. Cobbe also suggesting adding a bullet point to the action items stating that the committee recommends we develop a one page handout to distribute to legislators and others to promote what the education and statewide partnership division has accomplished each year. Susan Goode agreed and said the Norfolk Arts Group has done something similar to show legislators what they would be funding.
V. CONCLUDING REMARKS

Sandy Rusak said it meant so much to those communities to have the Director and the President, the First Lady of the Museum, and the Trustees present at the community meetings. Suzanne Mastracco asked how the partners will be notified of the changes and Susan Ferrell explained that they were all told they would receive appropriate portions of the final report.

Ms. Rusak noted that Betsy White could not be with us today but sent her comment that she has read the document and thought it was excellent and thorough and designed to embed Statewide into VMFA institutionally.

Alex Nyerges announced that we are going to go out to each region on a regular basis to visit, listen and reaffirm and he would like that made more specific in the report also. Suzanne Mastracco thanked the group for this draft document which she said was quite an accomplishment.

VI. OTHER BUSINESS/ ADJOURNMENT

No further business was brought before the Task Force, and the meeting adjourned at 2:00 pm.

Suzanne Broyles
